

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The year has been made eventful and has been saddened by the death of Bishop Potter. At a meeting of the Trustees, held shortly after the event, appropriate resolutions were adopted.

Mr. Harris C. Fahnestock, for many years Trustee of the Corporation, resigned as such, and his resignation was accepted with regret.

Mr. H. Hobart Keeler was duly elected to fill the vacant trusteeship.

In last year's report to the Convention, the Trustees urged that Section 5 of Canon XIX. be amended so as to permit the application of surplus income from the Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to the needs of the beneficiaries of the Fund for Widows and Children of deceased clergymen.

The Trustees again recommend that this action be taken.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Mr. Kimber presented the Report of the City Mission Society.

THE SEVENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEW YORK
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY.

In presenting this, the Seventy-seventh Annual Report of the Society, we must first chronicle the changes that have taken place in the Board of Managers through the deaths of Bishop Potter and the Rev. Dr. Dix and the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Huntington. Bishop Potter was elected to the Board in 1868, and on his consecration in 1883 became ex-officio its President, which office he held until his death. Dr. Dix was elected to membership in 1888, and Dr. Huntington's service covered a period of twenty-four years, from 1884 to 1908.

Our staff for the past year has numbered 22 clergymen, 5 deaconesses, 4 lay readers and 35 lay workers, besides a dozen others filling minor salaried positions.

These have ministered in our large field of thirty-six different stations, preaching the Word, administering the Sacraments, comforting the sorrowful, burying the dead, housing the homeless, clothing the naked and mothering the children, with the following results, as far as such ministrations can be translated into figures, for the conventional period of

May 1, 1907, to November 1, 1908.

This is a larger number of official acts than we have ever reported for a similar period, showing that the missionaries have been even more active than formerly in their efforts to seek out and save those who had wandered from the fold, or who had not yet entered its gates. The number of baptisms for twelve months was larger by 48 per cent. than was reported last year, and is only equalled or exceeded in twelve dioceses of the whole Church. It is one-fifth of the number reported by this diocese last year.

The Treasurer's books show the sources of the Society's income to have been as follows, for the year ending October 15, 1908:

Income applicable to General Expenses.....	$51,847 12
Fresh Air Fund.....	7,178 27
Festival Fund.....	3,039 85
Special Objects.....	2,976 30
Mission News, Subscriptions, etc.....	698 65
	<hr/> $65,579 04

The income from vested funds was $7,102 less, owing to the investment of these funds in buildings, but the contributions from churches and individuals were $800 more than last year.

The Convention of 1904, acting upon a request of the Bishop Coadjutor in his address, asked this Society to establish a mission among the colored people of Manhattan. The mission, under the name of St. Cyprian's Chapel, was started on May 1, 1905. With no plant, but with an energetic priest, the work was begun. In three years and a little more the mission has grown into a strong Chapel, to which 1,500 families are attached, that has baptized 375 individuals and presented 214 for confirmation. It has to-day a staff of two clergymen, a deaconess and four lay workers, all under salary. It has changed the neighborhood from one of strife and race riot to one of peace and amity. The work has been, and is, not only for spiritual ministry and upbuilding, but for civic betterment. A Sewing School of 425 members has transformed itself from an aggregation of ill-clad children of the streets, shivering with the winter's cold, into an organization that is well dressed in garments made by its own members, and greatly increased in its self-respect. The Employment Bureau has been literally a refuge for the immigrants from the Southern Islands, for they have been sheltered, housed and employment found for them. The little ones of school age, whose mothers are away from home from early till late at their work, have had to provide their noon-day meal with the few pennies given them for that purpose. Now those pennies will give them wholesome, warm food in the lunch room of the Parish House, and many meals are daily sent to the sick and poor of the neighborhood also. This is largely supported by the gifts of food and money made by the congregation of the Chapel.

The growth I have outlined has necessitated a plant to house it.

Since its inception the Society has expended for land and buildings at St. Cyprian's $121,314.57, and for current expenses, $19,742.44, a total of $141,057.01. Towards this we have received $8,923.52, the remaining $132,000 has had to be taken from such funds of the Society as were available for this purpose.

Six years ago Bishop Potter asked us to relieve him of the support and management of the Pro-Cathedral. We did so. For some years the population had so changed that the number of Christians near enough to attend the services greatly diminished. This decrease continued, until a year ago barely thirty could be gathered together. The building has been remodeled during the past season, to equip it to minister to the various nationalities that surrounded it. The Chapel, as large in its seating capacity as formerly, was moved to the street floor, another story was added, and accommodations for a day nursery, schools, amusements, clubs and societies were furnished. There is also a suite of rooms, an exact duplicate of an average tenement apartment, in which practical housekeeping under adverse conditions is taught, afternoons and evenings. These changes have cost $34,000, of which about one-half has been subscribed for the purpose, and the balance has been taken from the Society's funds. I have not seen the subject of a fitting memorial to Bishop Potter yet mentioned. This work lay close to his heart. He gave to it fully of his time, his thought—himself. He counted the summer he spent in residence there as one of the most valuable and pleasant experiences he had. What could be better than to so endow this work in his memory that it would continue to minister to the people who need its ministry most, in the future as it has in the seventy-five years past, unmoved by the vicissitudes of time, conditions and population?

Our peculiar field of labor is the work among the inmates of the Public Institutions. I might tell you story after story, if you would bear with me, that would show the comfort brought to these weary ones by the Chaplains—the assurance of sins forgiven, the reconciliation of wayward daughters or erring sons with the parents who had closed the homes against them. The families of prisoners call for our especial consideration. In most cases the wife and the children are the ones who suffer from the wrongdoing. Their support is taken from them. In many cases the wife has not been a wage earner before, and because of her inexperience it is difficult for her to find employment. There is much that the Society can do to relieve the consequent distress, and to guide the woman into the best channel of self-support.

The Fresh Air Fund was inconsiderably less than the largest amount we have ever received for this purpose. It was made to do a greater work, and boys and girls, mothers and babies, were received to the overflowing capacity of the Sarah Schermerhorn House and Camp Bleeker, and given 16,376 individual days' board at a gross cost of 45 cents per day per individual. The House and Chapel were, as you know, built some few years ago from a legacy of Miss Sarah Schermerhorn for this purpose. Last winter her two sisters gave $10,000 in memory of their mother, to be known as the Ann Schermerhorn Improvement Fund, the interest on which is to keep the buildings in repair.

It is our privilege to again acknowledge the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Browning, who have, for the fifteenth successive year, placed the Rethmore Home at Tenafly, New Jersey, at our disposal for the little children, and met the entire expense of its maintenance, as well as added many improvements and comforts.

The work is growing, despite our greatest care to keep the expenses within our ability to meet them. This year just closed the contributions were $65,500, the expenses $103,900, a difference of $38,400. This has had to be provided for, and the books have been closed with all accounts paid in full. We make no plea for the payment of a deficit, but we do most earnestly say to you that this difference between receipts and expenditures is too great. It cannot go on. Either the parishes and individuals must contribute more largely, or the work must be curtailed to the measure of your gifts. Which shall it be?

The Diocese is asked for $137,000 annually, for work outside its borders, and almost that sum is given. Is it too much to ask an equal amount for the work in its own great mission field? Why is the one so well cared for, while toward the other the words of encouragement outrun the material support? Is it that you esteem the one above the other? I doubt it. Or is it because the apportionment asked from each parish, and the amount given by it, being statedly published, you make it a matter of pride that your parish shall meet its debt of honor before the Church?

We come before you with no scheme of apportionment for ourselves. There is no obligation resting upon any parish toward this Society. All the contributions are voluntary, and subject to "the changes and chances of this mortal life," and the weather. On our ledger pages the liabilities of each year are writ large. There can be no mistaking them. The assets are but a question mark. This is not as it should be.

Will you, my brethren, pledge your parishes and yourselves to definite offerings, and make them something upon which we may depend for the carrying on of our work, or must we give up our Chaplaincies to the sick, afflicted and dying? Must we take the shelter of St. Barnabas' House from the homeless woman and her little ones? Then we will be compelled to hear the Master's voice in sorrow, saying, "I was a stranger, and ye took Me not in; naked, and ye clothed Me not; sick and in prison, and ye visited Me not." "Inasmuch, as ye did it not to the least of these ye did it not to Me."

My brethren, which?

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. KIMBER,

Superintendent.

November 10, 1908.

The Rev. Dr. Nelson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention has listened with deep sympathy to the interesting report of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society just presented by the Superintendent, and hereby pledges its continued support of the Society's work of mercy.

The Rev. A. R. Mansfield presented the Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York.

Report

OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK.

Again there is afforded an opportunity of presenting to this Convention a review of another year's labors and success of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York, which, in a few weeks, will have completed the sixty-fourth year of its existence.

At the outset, we cannot refrain from an expression of opinion that a work so important in its nature, and encouraging in its results, is but feebly appreciated by those to whom we naturally look for support. It differs, in many respects, from the ordinary Missions of our great cities, for they have access, at all times, to those whom they endeavor to influence. The most degraded are ever within the reach of the philanthropic. Our work, however, is devoted to a class whose only home is the trackless deep, and whose temporary residence in our midst should inspire increased effort to improve every opportunity of ministering unto souls, exposed more than all others, "To many and great dangers." These are they whom this Society aims to reach, and through valuable and practical agencies, to take them by the hand, and, in the spirit of brotherly love and a deep concern for their temporal and eternal welfare, to guide them into the path of duty.

The City of New York, occupying as it does the position of the greatest commercial centre of the nation and beneath whose shadows are thousands of these very men, gathered together by the necessities of commerce, should be able to number among its prominent institutions edifices especially devoted to their advantage.

There must be rallying points, attractive and comfortable, around which seamen may concentrate in their sojournings in our midst, where they can be withdrawn from evil associations, and led, perchance, to the cross of Christ.

HOME AND CHANGE IN STATIONS.

This Society has realized that the first thing seamen need when they come ashore is a hotel, a boarding-house, a "Home," peculiarly adapted to their wants.

In furtherance of our plans for extension and consolidation we have, during the past year, opened a new and larger "Home," adequate for the accommodation of 100 men, which is in a flourishing condition and is doing excellent work in a district greatly frequented by seamen, located at the corner of Furman Street and Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, and which consists of four buildings equipped for the purpose, similar to a Mills Hotel. This property was purchased in part from the proceeds of the sale of the sailor's home in Market Street, which had become too small for our purposes, in a territory no longer frequented by sailors. At this new station the work heretofore carried on in Market Street and at Bush Terminal Docks in Brooklyn will be consolidated and operated until the completion of the new proposed building at Coenties Slip and South Street, which we earnestly hope to report at the next convention no longer as a proposed building (which we have been compelled to do often enough), but a building nearly completed.

NEW BUILDING.

Citizens of New York have already responded generously to our appeal for the larger Seamen's Institute referred to in our last report, and which is to supply 500 men with separate sleeping rooms, captains and officers with club rooms, a restaurant supplying single meals or board by the day or week, a free shipping bureau, class-rooms for nautical instruction, reading, writing, game and baggage rooms, banking and post-office departments, and a large assembly hall for religious services, lectures and entertainments. The plot of land, about 90 feet square, at corner of Coenties Slip and South Street, has been bought at a cost of about $200,000, all of which has been subscribed. At least $300,000 more will be needed for construction and equipment.

This is a problem and a responsibility greater than has ever before been assumed by our Society, but it is the natural and logical development of our work. It is not too much to hope that New York will set an example to other ports. Already a similar Society to our own has erected and opened on West Street, the finest institute in this country, in order to especially meet the needs of the crews of the large Western ocean liners.

OUR FREE SHIPPING BUREAU.

The number of seamen shipped without payment of illegal shipping fees and bonuses was, during the year, from our Battery Station, 2,390, and from our North River Station, 344, making a total of 2,734, while the Battery Station provided employment on ships to 1,208 men and the North River Station to 117 more, making a grand total of 4,059. By our protection and hospitality extended to the sailor on shore we have greatly lessened the vile traffic in human flesh of the crimps and criminal boarding-house keepers. Never before has this department been so splendidly supported, morally and financially, by ship owners.

MISSION BOAT AND HARBOR SERVICE.

The "Sentinel" continues to add greatly to the efficiency of our mission and practical work in this churchless harbor and has become indispensable in the recent enlargement of our scope by its 351 trips during the year and its transportation of an average of 249 seamen each month. The continued co-operation of the ladies who constitute the Seamen's Benefit Society, in keeping this vessel in active work, is gratefully acknowledged. Its average monthly cost for maintenance is about $394.26, but its value is vastly greater. Of the annual cost of $4,739.56 we have received $1,000 from the said Society.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

Our banking facilities have been availed of by very many sailors, to the extent of $116,810.76 for safe keeping and for transmission to their relatives at home. Without the protection this department affords the seaman manages to get parted from his hard-earned wages, received in a lump sum at the end of a voyage, in the most remarkable manner and in an almost incredible short space of time, for there are those who lie in wait, watching the opportunity to rob him, practising every art to tempt him to evil, and many a man having served well on the ocean and brought off his dearly earned pay has soon come to want, shame and abject dependence, and then has gone again to sea, penniless and cheerless, damaged in character and habits, through the corruptions of his enemies.

LEGISLATION.

Recent legislation and the activity of the Seamen's Branch of the Legal Aid Society have minimized crimes against seamen. Heavy fines have been inflicted upon boarding-house keepers for extorting "blood money" for obtaining employment for sailors. Our committee has obtained appropriate relief and protection for men employed on scows and barges, who have been greatly exposed to needless disaster from lack of life-saving appliances. These scows and barges are now equipped with life-lines, life-belts, anchors, etc. Failure to comply with new provisions renders the owner of such scow or barge liable, upon conviction thereof, to a penalty of not more than $500.

RELIGIOUS WORK.

At our churches and mission houses the usual Sunday and week-day services have been regularly continued.

Throughout the year the Society has had services of two clergymen, a lay reader and twenty others, thus furnishing seamen with friends who serve them in health, in sickness and distress, and in the hour of death.

We hear of and from the sailor in the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Indian Oceans, in the Baltic, Mediterranean and China Seas, among the far distant islands of the Eastern and Western Hemispheres and in the ships penetrating the most unfrequented portions of the globe.

Said one, "If the thousands upon thousands of seamen who yearly sail from the port of New York were one and all intent upon the service of Christ and the redemption of fallen man, what a vast effective force would they constitute for the spreading abroad of the leaves of the tree of life, which are for the healing of the nations. Yet even such results must be looked for before the ripening harvest of the world is gathered, and they must be actually realized before the coming day when the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea."

Ships manned by the irreligious and profane carry around the world an influence for evil, but a crew who add to the frank, generous and brave character of the sailor the quality of true worshippers, carrying to every port the words of life, and showing there the example of men made happy by grace, comes to the shores like a visitor from the skies bearing blessings on its wings. It would be a libel on the Church in the city and Port of New York to suggest, for one moment, that a mission for sailors in the great commercial emporium of the United States, a city whose wealth is profits of the commerce carried on by the labors of the sailor and boatman, can fail of liberal support, if the cause is only clearly presented.

The Church at home and abroad may well look, with earnest eye, upon the progress of seamen's missions and institutes.

The year 1908 will be ever memorable in the history of the whole Anglican Communion throughout the world as the year of the first great Pan-Anglican Congress, when bishops and diocesan delegates, from 250 dioceses, in every part of the world, met together with thousands of other churchmen and churchwomen, at the heart of the British Empire, to discuss matters of supreme interest in the life of the Church of God, in all lands and on all seas, in the fulfillment of her grave responsibilities and duties towards her own people, towards all Christendom and towards the world at large.

May we not hope that seamen, without whose aid in bringing the members from every corner of the earth the Congress would have been a physical impossibility, will have a large share in the blessings which flow from the great Church!

In Memoriam.—The sudden death of Captain A. McLean Wait has deprived our Board of one of its most active and practical members. His knowledge of life at sea and of maritime affairs and his zeal in behalf of the work of the Society will cause him to be long remembered and his loss to be regretted by his colleagues.

Legacies.—The Society has received during the past year but one legacy, that of the late Miss Amide Vogel Smith of the sum of $1,000.

Finances.—We have been compelled to draw from our trust funds $16,000 toward making up the difference between our receipts for current expenses amounting to $17,752.87 and the sum of $35,186.68, which has been expended in the most economical manner consistent with the enlarged work of the Society.

It is with great regret and no little discouragement that we find ourselves year after year making inroads upon the fund which is our main source of support, yet curtailment of effort in the face of increasing work seems inadvisable and impossible unless we shirk our growing opportunity for usefulness.

The Convention reassembled at two o'clock.

On motion of the Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D., the Report of the Committee on Inadequate Salaries of Clergy was made the Order of Business to-morrow at 11.30.

Proposed addition to Canon 13.

To add the following proviso to Section 1:

Provided that if the authorities of the Parish shall for a period of three calendar months either

- (1) Neglect or decline to fill the vacancy by the call of a new Incumbent, or
- (2) Decline or neglect to concur with the Ordinary in such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish, then and in either of such cases the ordinary shall have full power without their concurrence to take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

Any Minister or Incumbent appointed by the Ordinary from time to time for the purpose of the temporary maintenance of religious services in the Parish shall, during the time of his ministry or incumbency, have such powers as are given to a Rector by Section 1 of Canon 15 of the General Canons of the Church; and the authorities of the Parish shall pay every such Minister so appointed such compensation as shall be fixed by the Ordinary.

The powers of the Ordinary given by this proviso shall continue until the authorities of the Parish shall call a Rector, and until any such Rector so called shall have accepted the call.

Sec. 11. The presence of at least fifty clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention and of Delegates from at least forty congregations shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower offered the following amendment to the Canons, and it was referred to the Committee on Canons:

The Rev. M. H. Gates offered the following amendment to the Canons, and it was referred to the Committee on Canons:

CANON XVI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

Sec. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of its current expenses as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

The Rev. Dr. Hopson presented the Report of St. Stephen's College.

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The Trustees of the Diocesan College beg to report that the College opened September 9th with forty-eight students, which has been our average number for the past ten years. There were thirty other applicants, who were desirous of studying for the ministry, but we could not receive them owing to our lack of scholarships. Four of them wished to work their way through college, but we had no remunerative employment for them.

The Rev. Edgar Cope, Rector of St. Simeon's Church, Philadelphia, declined his election as Warden. The vacancy has not yet been filled.

The Professor of Chemistry, in consequence of ill health, has been obliged to discontinue his lectures this year, but hopes to resume them next year. Mr. Edwin Ott has been engaged as instructor in History. Mr. Ott is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, and has taken a postgraduate course of two years in Harvard University. In other respects our Faculty is unchanged.

The number of students that are graduated from St. Stephen's is not a fair indication of the work that she does in educating men for the sacred ministry. It was the intention of her founders that she should make a specialty of educating young men who had been engaged in business, but had decided to take Holy Orders, and needed two or three years of careful preparation to enable them to pass the canonical examinations required for admission to the Theological Seminaries. These men, owing to their maturity of judgment and their knowledge of men and affairs, form excellent material for the ministry. We always have some of them in college, and yearly send some out to pursue their studies in Theology. Last year there were seventeen of our former students, graduates and non-graduates in the different seminaries. Twelve of them graduated in June and were ordained. This autumn ten others entered upon their Theological studies, seven in the seminaries and three under the direction of their bishops while in charge of Missions. I have a list of 402 clergymen who have at some time been students of St. Stephen's College.

We hear much of the lack of candidates for the ministry. It was a subject of earnest discussion in our General Convention and at the Lambeth Conference. It affects other religious bodies. What is the trouble? Judging from my experience last summer, when I accepted eighteen new students and refused thirty, I should say that it was a lack of money rather than of men. There are many earnest souls anxious to devote themselves to the service of the Lord, but they need to be armed, equipped and disciplined. They come from the class from which our Lord chose his Apostles. They come from Christian homes, which, though poor in this world's goods, are rich in faith. Why should we not educate them? If the nation deems it no disgrace to pay the entire expenses of those who are being trained to lead her armies and navies to battle, why should we begrudge their little scholarships to those who are to be officers in the Church militant and lead the armies of the Lord of Hosts?

GEO. B. HOPSON,
Acting Warden.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the Report of the Sunday-School Commission.

Report

OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL COMMISSION.

Ten years ago, at the Convention of 1898, the late Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. H. C. Potter, D.D., appointed a Sunday-school Commission "with a view of raising the standard of Sunday-school teaching, and furthering the work of the proper grading of schools and the use of such text-books and lessons as may most satisfactorily meet the needs of the Church."

It is not our purpose in this Report to review in detail the story of the past ten years. But it would seem proper that, having been appointed to do a certain task, we should give some account of our stewardship. The task committed to us was stated in terms which made it necessary for us to deal with it in the light of certain underlying principles. This was, indeed, the intention in creating the Commission. While it defined certain objects, it was apparent that these objects could not be secured at once by merely stating them, and the Commission rightly decided that its work was, first, to call attention to those principles which underlie all true education and arouse an interest in the Sunday-school as an educational institution.

1. Lesson Manuals. Under this charter, so to speak, it arranged what was known as the Christian Knowledge Course of Lectures. These were given in St. Bartholomew's Church in this city in the autumn and winter of 1899, under the rectorship of the present Bishop of New York. It was in those lectures, we believe, that the idea of the Subject-graded Lessons for Sunday-schools was first enunciated. The almost universal use, up to that time, of the Uniform Lesson, made this an entirely new departure. This idea rapidly gained acceptance, and to-day the principle of subject-graded lessons has largely supplanted the uniform lesson, and where this is still favored, it has greatly modified its character and treatment.

Almost immediately upon the appointment of the Commission the demand confronted us for better lessons. We had nothing to recommend that was calculated to meet the standard of modern educational methods and ideals. The work of providing such lessons was confessedly difficult. But the demand was insistent, and the first effort in this line was devised to supply a local need. In 1902 the first Manual was published. Other books were added from time to time. To-day 57 distinct books supplying 24 fully-graded courses bear the imprint of the Commission. In these six years they have reached a sale of 1,100,000 copies.

In 1904 less than 40 out of the 243 Sunday-schools of this Diocese used these manuals. To-day they are found in 107 schools. Over one-half of all the schools in our American Church use them either wholly or in part. Some of them are also used in other Churches, and orders come to us from England, Canada, Australia, Haiti, Cuba, Alaska, Egypt, Japan, China, and India even.

These manuals, let it be remembered, represent an effort to meet certain needs. The making of text-books is not an easy task, and text-books for Sunday-schools present perhaps the most difficult problems of any. We claim for these nothing beyond such merit as they may have in actual use, and a serious attempt to follow certain recognized principles.

2. Ten years ago teacher-training was almost wholly represented by the weekly study of the lesson for the following Sunday. This was naturally the case considering the wide use of the Uniform Lesson. It was not in the true sense of the term teacher-training. There were, of course, those to whom this conception and practice were not satisfactory. But the weekly lesson study was so inextricably associated with the Uniform Lesson, and this was so universally used, that it practically represented the only method of teacher-training in our Sunday-schools.

But with the Subject-graded Lesson another conception was as inevitably associated. The trained teacher is one who has some knowledge of the art outside mere knowledge of the Lesson. With this object in view, Reading Courses were arranged, Conferences and Classes were organized, and the past ten years have witnessed a remarkable and growing interest in the subject. There lies before us now the definite object of creating a body of trained teachers in every Sunday-school. Careful and persistent effort to this end is being made. The movement is still in its infancy, but much has been accomplished. The standard of the teaching officer has been distinctly lifted. The importance of its better preparation, and its deepened spiritual responsibility, is everywhere being recognized.

Statistics do not always adequately represent the real force of a movement, nor the work actually accomplished. But it may be of interest to know that 74 training courses have been carried on under the Commission, reaching in the aggregate many hundreds of teachers, that nearly 1,200 addresses have been made at Conferences, Summer Schools, Institutes and other occasions, reaching teachers and workers in widely scattered sections and dioceses.

The Secretary of the Commission, the Rev. Dr. Smith, has, of course, done the larger part of this work. Others have, so far as possible, responded to such calls, but the demand has been greater than could even so be met.

The fact of first importance, after all, in any problem of education, is the Teacher. It is this that determines the value of the whole process. Everything else, course of study, text-books, apparatus, all are subject to him. He is the soul of the school. And the growing recognition of this is the one encouraging feature of present Sunday-school conditions. Teacher-training is in the air. However we secure this, the thing itself must be done. In one way or another, by Conferences, by Reading Courses, Correspondence Classes, and teachers' meetings, by the co-operation of trained and paid teachers who either teach or act as supervisors of instruction in the Sunday-school by any or all these means, the problem is being met in a spirit very different from that which existed ten years ago.

3. Theological Education. In the Christian Knowledge Lectures the Commission took the position that every Theological School should have a department of religious education.* There was nothing strange in this. It was but harking back to the best traditions of the Church, when the greatest preachers were also its greatest teachers, and rated their instruction of youth a duty as noble and imperative as their exhortation to adults, and when, indeed, the sermon was far more an instruction than an oration.

The Church has heretofore emphasized work for adults over that for children. Preaching is too commonly hortatory. The Church spends more effort in making preachers of religion than she does in making teachers of religion, and "the preaching is much better done than the teaching."

The demand of to-day is that we put these duties in their proper proportion. The State relies for the creation of intelligent and patriotic citizenship far more upon the education of children at school than upon speeches addressed to voters. In the estimate of our duties, we do well to remember that the fresh addition to our Churches are the children. They give us a constant supply of new material on which to work. Much as men and women need our attention, the children need it more. And the fuller service of the children will save the necessity for much of the now almost fruitless effort we spend on the adult.

It is, therefore, most significant that the last General Convention, in response to the growing interest in these matters, and in direct answer to the appeal to the Joint Commission on Sunday-school Instruction added to the requirements of Candidates for Ordination the study of the "Principles and Methods of Religious Education as Applied to the Sunday-school." No department of the Seminary should be more fully equipped than this. It will not less increase the virility of the pulpit than it will raise the standard of the school and the intelligence of the pew.

4. Supply Department and Office. Mention has been made of the Supply Department and the Office. We need not give in detail the work that centres here: The Bulletin with its issue of 2,000; the calls that come by letter and in person for advice and information, reaching over 225,000 pieces of mail, in and out, during the past ten years; the callers at the Exhibit Rooms, mounting up to nearly 13,000 persons; the Exhibit itself of over 19,500 separate articles; the business reaching almost 30,000 orders in this brief time.

All this finds its explanation in the conditions under which the Commission began its work. No one who has not come into actual contact with it can quite realize what that department has represented in the way of practical help and suggestion. It is in a sense a clearing house, a plan of exchange and supply. It is beyond question a most useful institution. We have no desire to exploit this feature of our work further than to show that it is not something which we have created for our own gratification, but rather that it has grown out of certain unavoidable conditions.

Had the New York Commission simply preached the need of better lessons, better methods, better equipment for Teacher and School, and done nothing else, we should long since have ceased to be of service. But simply because we did honestly try to help secure things for which we were constantly asked, and which we needed as well as they, because we tried to help schools as well as to plead for better schools, we found ourselves drawn into the work as we have done it. If we had confined ourselves to our own Diocese we should not have served the Church at large. We have felt that the larger, and in the more enduring work for the Diocese of New York could only come this broader service. We mention this because it is proper that all should clearly understand that our work has been a perfectly normal development from the principles upon which we were created, and the conditions that existed. We know that all this has cost money, that it has been subsidized. But we believe that whatever money and support has been given by New York churches and generous individuals have been in reality given to the whole Church.

6. At the end of ten years we feel that much has been accomplished. We have taken part in that large movement for better religious education which is constantly growing in volume and power. But whatever we may have done for the Church at large, we have certainly not done what is needed for our own Diocese. If we have paved the way for others so that other Dioceses have established their Field or Educational Secretaries and organized their work, this is something to have done. But our own schools, not in the city only, but throughout the Diocese, to the smallest and feeblest, ought to receive from now on whatever advantage can come from fully equipping our Diocesan organization. This means generous financial support. But there can be no question that if someone be set apart to this service, it will result in building up our Sunday-schools. The best results can only be expected by the Church when her religious teachers are thoroughly trained. Such training can only come when the whole Sunday-school work of the Diocese receives the fullest possible recognition and supervision. In this way only can the Church reach the lives of the children in any large numbers.

Such a step would bring the fulfilment of the vision which the great Bishop cherished when he instituted the Commission, from whose work he believed would flow far-reaching good for the Diocese and the whole Church.

PASCAL HARROWER,

Chairman.

The Rev. P. Harrower offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Convention has heard the annual report of the Sunday-school Commission, with its review of the ten years since its appointment; and

WHEREAS, This period has witnessed a large development of interest throughout the country in the problem of the moral and religious education of our American youth; and

WHEREAS, the demand upon the Church for her efficient co-operation in this work of confessedly national importance is pressed on her from every side of the educational world; therefore,

Resolved, That this Convention of New York request the Bishop of the Diocese to take this matter under special advisement.

Resolved, That this Convention give its hearty endorsement to the work and policy of the Commission, and its efforts for the cause of religious and moral instruction, and to the principles for which it has stood.

Resolved, That this Convention request the Bishop of the Diocese to take this subject under special advisement, with a view of placing the whole work of the Sunday-school and religious education upon the basis for most effective work.

Resolved, That $3,000 be appropriated from the Diocesan Fund for the use of the Sunday-school Commission for the coming year.

Resolved, That the Standing Committee of the Diocesan Fund be instructed to make such an apportionment to the parishes of the Diocese, in accordance with Canon XIX., on an equitable basis of adjustment, as shall secure the money necessary for this as well as other diocesan expenses.

Mr. Geo. Zabriskie moved the reference of the resolutions to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business, and they were so referred.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower moved the reappointment of the Members of the Sunday-school Commission.

Dr. J. Lewis Parks moved that the appointment be referred to the Committee on Canons to decide its status, which was adopted.

The Secretary presented the following report:

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that during the conventional year 1907-08 they have held five meetings.

At the first meeting Colonel William Jay was elected President, in succession to Mr. George R. Schieffelin, whose retirement from the office and the society after many years of devoted service was announced to the last Convention.

Appropriations have been made, as usual, to several of the most efficient and deserving, but also most ill-paid, of the clergy of the Diocese, and special grants have met needs created by the stringencies of the last year. No application was refused. One rectory, the title to which vests in the Trustees, was repaired and improved out of the funds.

The Annual Report of the Treasurer is herewith appended. The terms of office of Mr. Anson R. Flower and Mr. George A. Crocker, Jr., expired October 1, 1908. The Trustees suggest that the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to cast a ballot for these gentlemen to succeed themselves.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM JAY, President.

ROBERT ELLIS JONES, Acting Secretary.

Mr. A. R. Flower and Mr. Geo. A. Crocker, Jr., were duly elected Trustees to succeed themselves.

The Bishop requested the Rev. Dr. Huntington to take the chair.

Mr. Geo. Macculloch Miller presented the Report of the Episcopal Fund.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York report that the capital of the General Fund in their hands is two hundred and fourteen thousand four hundred and eighty-four dollars and eleven cents ($214,484.11).

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund again respectfully call the attention of the Convention to the deficiency existing in the Residence Fund, and ask such action by the Convention as will enable the Trustees to pay this debt.

The receipts from investments during the year will be insufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary, and no addition having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, an assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of income for the year ending November, 1909, and the Trustees, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of three per cent. upon the salaries paid to the clergy, for the purposes of raising moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, in lieu of the collections provided for by canon.

The statement of the investment and income of the funds in the hands of the Trustees is as follows:

Mr. Miller moved the adoption of the resolutions appended to the report, and they were adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Van Kleeck offered the following amendment to the Canons, which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

Amend Canon IX., Section 2, so that the first two lines of the second paragraph shall read, "Any member of the Convention may place in the hands of the Secretary, in writing, up to the Monday before the first day of the meeting thereof," and change line 7 to read "beginning of the first day's session."

The Rev. Mr. Hulse offered the following amendment to the Canons, and it was referred to the Committee on Canons:

Resolved, That Section 2 of Canon IX., entitled, "Concerning Elections," be, and the same hereby is, amended by striking out the word "and" after the words "General Convention" whenever they occur, and by inserting after the words "Deputies to the Federate Council" whenever they occur the words "and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department."

Resolved, That the Rules of Order be, and the same hereby are, amended by the omission of the word "and" after the words "General Convention" and the insertion of the words "and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department" after the words "Deputies to the Federate Council" in fifth and sixth Rules of Order.

The Bishop then resumed the chair.

The Rev. J. E. Freeman presented the Report of the Committee on Social Service.

Report

OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

In presenting this, its first report to the Convention of the Diocese, the Commission, regarding the importance of its undertakings and the general scope of its plans as of such significance as to entitle them to the deepest consideration on the part of this Convention, ventures to submit, with as much abbreviation as the importance of the matter warrants, the record of its work for the past year. Under the resolution creating this Commission, it is incompetent to prosecute certain departments of its enterprise without the concurrent action and approval of the Convention. Touching, as the Commission has, but the outer rim of this great field of Christian service, it feels that the Convention is entitled to know the processes by which its conclusions have been reached, and to that end begs to submit the following:

At the General Convention of 1901 there was appointed a Commission on the "Relations of Capital and Labor," to study the aims and purposes of the labor organizations of our country, to investigate the causes of industrial disturbances and to hold themselves in readiness to act as arbitrators.

By action of the Convention of 1904, this Commission was continued another period of three years, and in the Convention of 1907 was made permanent. Among the recommendations contained in the report of the Commission to the General Convention of 1907 was the following: "It is our judgment that Diocesan Committees of Social Service and the like should be formed." Pursuant to this suggestion, augmented by the urgent request of Bishop Potter in his Convention address of 1907, a commission was appointed in this diocese comprising twenty-two members with the bishop as chairman; the names of the Commission as appointed by the bishop being herewith appended.

In the organization of the Commission, the Rev. John P. Peters, D.D., was elected Vice-President and Mr. Edward T. Cockey, Secretary. The Rev. Dr. Peters was appointed fraternal delegate to the Central Federated Labor Union, and sub-committees appointed as follows:

- a. On the relation of the Church to organized labor.
- b. On the Big Brother Movement.
- c. On Excise.
- d. On Publication.

The report of the Sub-Committee on the Big Brother Movement has been published and sent to the clergy of the diocese. Its suggestions are as follows:

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON BIG BROTHER MOVEMENT.

The Sub-Committee on the Big Brother Movement, in its larger application, desires to call attention to three organizations calculated to be of great service to the boys and girls living under unnatural and perilous conditions in our city life.

First. To the Probation System in the Children's Court. By this system sentence is suspended by the court in the case of children coming before it for minor or first offences, and in lieu of imprisonment they are placed on probation for a time. Children on probation are committed to the care of probation officers who are assisted in their testing and educational work by the Board of Education, the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to children, and by volunteers, organizations and individuals who pledge themselves to save these boys and girls.

Of 6,579 children placed on probation by the court in the past five years, 5,343 or over 80 per cent. have been saved to good citizenship.

Second. We beg to call attention to the Big Brother Movement, a voluntary organization, whose aim is by individual and human interest to set on their feet boys in probation before the children's court. A big brother, as the name implies, is one who interests himself in every way in behalf of a less privileged boy.

Third. We beg to direct attention to Hope Farm, a protectory established by Bishop Greer in Dutchess County, as a place to which children may be committed and trained in character, in citizenship and in useful occupations.

The Sub-Committee commends these methods of child-saving to the Convention for its approval and suggests the following ways by which Churchmen may assist:

1. By joining the Big Brothers. This can be done as individuals, or, better still, by chapters of St. Andrew, Men's Clubs, and Rector's Aid Societies. The headquarters, at 318 West Fifty-seventh Street, will gladly send literature and secure boys to brother.

2. Rectors of country parishes, not less, perhaps, than twenty-five miles from the city, could interest their people to receive into the life and work of their families children thus on probation, the New York Committee offering itself as a medium of communication.

3. As Hope Farm grows, Churchmen in any community to which graduates of the Farm are sent could give personal oversight to such young people and report on their well-being to the Warden.

Rev. F. B. Whiteome,
Rev. A. T. Ashton, D.D.,
Mr. Rogers H. Bacon,
Mr. T. Howard Wainwright,
Committee.

The report of the Committee on the Relation of the Church to Organized Labor has also been published and issued to the clergy. In presenting this report to the Convention we beg to submit that the conclusions reached on the result of repeated conferences which the Committee held with the leading representatives of organized labor and employers, in which the whole subject was carefully discussed. In the judgment of the Committee supplemented by the concurrent judgment of the entire Commission, the aims and purposes set forth in this report should engage the interest and widespread support of the clergy and laity throughout the diocese.

The consecration and intelligent zeal with which our late beloved diocesan lent himself to this supremely important cause witnesses at once to the need and the necessity for immediate action on the part of the Church.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE RELATION OF THE CHURCH TO ORGANIZED LABOR.

THE REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE RELATIONS OF THE CHURCH TO LABOR.

No question now before the Church is of larger significance or importance than that one which relates here to those matters that have to do with the vast interests of the wage earners of this country in their efforts after physical and material betterment. The warrant for the Church's attitude is of the fundamentals of her faith, and proceeds from the certain and un-failing teaching and example of the Man of Nazareth, whose record of toil for the uplift of humanity is the world's noblest chronicle.

The field of the Church's occupation is the domain of all human endeavor, and her polity inclusive of all that relates to the physical, moral and spiritual well-being of men.

The present social crisis confronting this country is one that demands the generous and most statesmanlike attitude on the part of all our citizens, but more particularly of those whose profession of faith witnesses to the principles of human brotherhood.

The field of human service is essentially a chief concern of religion, and every enterprise of the Church should be related in an immediate and intimate way to the solving of our present industrial problem.

We believe it to be the clear obligation of the Church to ally herself and her various institutions with every agency that to-day is, by fair and consistent means, seeking for the betterment of the conditions of wage earners. We believe that representatives of her ministry should be fraternally related to the representative labor organizations of the country. We believe that in every part of her diocesan life, interparochial agencies should be devised and organized for the maintenance of proper relations and co-operation with organized and unorganized labor in prosecuting those larger ends that have to do with the whole life of all our people.

We advise that public services be held periodically, designed for the express purpose of emphasizing the Church's responsibility and vital interest in these great human concerns. We recommend that the Church aid and support all reasonable legislation directed towards the general betterment of the laboring classes.

For the better and more aggressive prosecution of these ends and aims, we recommend that a definite organization of diocesan forces be effected on the following lines:

a. The Diocese to be divided into Labor Districts, following the lines of the several Archdeaconries.

b. The several rectors, with a lay representative from each parish, to constitute the general committee in each district, from which a smaller executive committee may be appointed for the transaction of ordinary business.

c. Each district to appoint a fraternal delegate, or delegates, to sit as the representative of the committee with the local central body of labor.

d. Each Central Federated body to appoint a fraternal delegate, or delegates, to sit as the representative of the central body of labor on the local committees.

e. The several chairmen of Local Committees to constitute the Executive Committee of the Diocese on the Relations of the Church to Organized Labor.

f. When it is deemed expedient by the Executive Committee, a special salaried representative to be appointed as the Executive Secretary of the Diocesan body, whose duties shall be determined by that body.

In pursuance of the method of procedure set forth in the foregoing report of the Social Service Commission, we beg to present the following resolutions:

a. Resolved, That, in accepting its report, this Convention endorses and confirms the action taken by the Social Service Commission bearing upon the Probation System and the Big Brother Movement, and also upon the relation of the Church to labor, and that it authorizes the Commission to proceed to effect a definite organization in accordance with the plans submitted.

b. Resolved, That the treasurer of the Diocesan Fund be authorized to pay to the Commission, for incidental expenses of the body, the sum of fifty dollars.

c. Resolved, That the Social Service Commission be made a standing committee of the Diocese to be appointed by the Bishop, and that its annual report be made a part of the regular proceedings of the Convention.

Respectfully submitted for the Commission,

JAMES E. FREEMAN.

Report

OF THE NEW YORK TRAINING SCHOOL FOR DEACONESSSES.

The New York Training School for Deaconesses opened this year with an enrollment of thirty-five, the largest number of students the School has entered thus far. Of this body of students, twenty-seven are in evidence at St. Faith's and eight are living in their homes and coming to the class-rooms for special courses.

The class sent out by the School last spring numbered twelve. Four of these young women have since then been ordered deaconesses. Their fields of work are as follows: In the Bronx, three; the New York City Mission Society (for work in St. Cyprian's Chapel), one; Christ Church, Springfield, Mass., one; the mountains of North Carolina, two; Mexico City, one; the District of Shanghai, two.

The death of the Rev. Haslett McKim, D.D., has bereaved the School of a generous friend and benefactor, as well as a valued member of the Faculty. The authorities of the School regret also the withdrawal from the Faculty of the Rev. Professor Kinsman, now Bishop of Delaware, and of the Rev. George Ashton Oldham.

The new appointments are, to the chair of Old Testament History and Literature, the Rev. Professor Blodgett of the General Theological Seminary, and to the chair of Ecclesiastical History, the Rev. M. Bowyer Stewart of the General Theological Seminary.

A new feature has been added to the course of training. The Junior students spend one morning of each week in the class-rooms of the School of Philanthropy. Through the kind interest of the authorities of that School, the lecture courses most useful to our students have been scheduled for Thursday, the day when our students are present.

W. R. HUNTINGTON,
Warden.

November 11, 1908.

The Rev. O. Applegate presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON APPORTIONMENT.

The Committee on the Diocesan Apportionment for General Missions reports:

That the amount asked of this Diocese by the Board of Managers for the year beginning September 1, 1908, is $131,100.

That the specific apportionments have been assigned to the various congregations.

That the total contributed on last year's apportionment is $114,660, from 153 congregations, no response being made by ninety.

That a comparison of the results of last year with previous efforts is, on the whole, encouraging, particularly in the number of parishes which gave in excess of their apportionment; but that the large number of congregations which do not show the results of even an effort to participate is still a matter of grave concern.

That it has appointed a Committee on Correction and Adjustment, and asks that any apparent injustice or error be referred to that committee through its chairman, Dr. James H. Canfield, the Librarian of Columbia University.

OCTAVIUS APPLGATE,
Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Applegate, the Rev. Dr. Van Kleeck was elected Chairman of the Committee on Apportionment.

The Rev. Charles Mercer Hall, withdrew his name from the list of nominations for the Standing Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Batten moved that the Rules of Order be dispensed with, so that the Committee on Canons may present its report.

The Right Rev. F. Courtney, D.D., presented the following report of the Committee on Canons:

1. The Committee recommend the adoption of the following amendment of Article VII. of the Constitution, being a new Article VII. in place of the present one, the amendment having been approved by the last Convention and referred to this Convention for adoption:

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall be entitled to one vote, the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor having the right to vote with the clergy. When votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859; the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Members voting shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

Which was adopted by a concurrent vote of both Orders.

2. The Committee have considered the resolution introduced by the Rev. H. R. Hulse, that Section 1 of Canon X. ("Of Deputies to the General Convention") be amended so that the same shall read:

"The Convention shall, at each regular annual meeting preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four clergymen and four laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention."

The Committee recommend that the amendment shall read:

"The Convention shall, at the regular annual meeting next preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four clergymen and four laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention"; and that in such form the amendment be adopted.

Which was adopted by a concurrent vote of both Orders.

3. The Committee have considered the resolution introduced by Mr. Henry Lewis Morris, that Section 11 of Canon II. ("Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats") be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 11. The presence of at least fifty clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention and of Delegates from at least forty congregations shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

And they recommend that the proposed amendment be adopted.

Which was adopted.

4. The Committee have considered the resolution introduced by the Rev. H. R. Hulse, that Section 2 of Canon IX. ("Concerning Elections") be amended by striking out the word "and" after the words "General Convention," whenever they occur, and by inserting after the words "Deputies to or Members of the Federate Council," whenever they occur, the words "and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department."

The Committee recommend that the proposed amendment be adopted.

Which was adopted.

5. The Committee have also considered the resolution introduced by the Rev. H. R. Hulse, that Rules of Order V. and VI. be amended by inserting in Section 6 of Rule V. the words "for Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department" after the words "Deputies to the Federate Council," and in Section 4 of Rule VI. the words "Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department" after the words "Deputies to the Federate Council"; and they recommend that the proposed amendments be adopted.

On motion, these amendments were adopted.

5. The Committee have considered the resolution introduced by the Rev.

M. H. Gates, that Section 1 of Canon XVI. ("Of the Diocesan Fund") be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of its current expenses as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses."

And they recommend that the proposed amendment be adopted.

Which was adopted.

6. The Committee have considered the resolution introduced by the Rev. Dr. Frederick B. Van Kleeck, that part of Section 2 of Canon IX. ("Concerning Elections") shall read as follows:

"Any member of the Convention may place in the hands of the Secretary, in writing, up to the Monday before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations signed by himself, for the Standing Committee" . . . etc. "All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the first day's session" . . . etc.

The Committee recommend that, instead of the words "up to the Monday before the first day of the meeting," the words "on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the meeting" shall be used, and that as thus altered the proposed amendment be adopted.

Which was adopted.

7. The Committee have considered the resolution introduced by the Rev. Henry Barker, that Canon XIII. ("Of Vacant Parishes and Clergymen without Cure") be amended by the addition of the following proviso to Section 1 thereof, viz.:

"Provided that if the authorities of the Parish shall for a period of three calendar months either

- (1) neglect or decline to fill the vacancy by the call of a new Incumbent; or,
- (2) decline or neglect to concur with the Ordinary in such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish;

then and in either of such cases the Ordinary shall have full power without their concurrence to take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

"Any Minister or Incumbent appointed by the Ordinary from time to time for the purpose of the temporary maintenance of religious services in the Parish shall, during the time of his Ministry or Incumbency, have such powers as are given to a Rector by Section 1 of Canon XV. of the General Canons of the Church; and the authorities of the Parish shall pay every such Minister so appointed such compensation as shall be fixed by the Ordinary.

"The powers of the Ordinary given by this proviso shall continue until the authorities of the Parish shall call a Rector, and until any such Rector so called shall have accepted the call."

By Section 1 of Canon XIV. of the General Canons of the Church it is provided that when a parish or congregation becomes vacant the churchwardens or other proper officers shall notify the fact to the Bishop; and that, if the authorities of the parish shall for thirty days fail to make provision for the services, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of Divine services therein.

In the opinion of the Committee, the Bishop, therefore, already has ample powers to enable him to provide for the temporary maintenance of religious services in a parish, under the conditions contemplated in the proposed amendment.

The powers which the amendment proposes shall be conferred upon the temporary Minister or Incumbent, being those vested in a Rector by Section 1 of Canon XV. of the General Canons, are "the control of the worship and the spiritual jurisdiction of the parish." The Committee consider that the undertaking to confer such powers in relation to the parish upon a Minister or Incumbent, appointed by the Bishop only for the purpose of the temporary maintenance of religious services in such parish, is unwise, and wrong in principle; and they further are of the opinion that such action would be in violation of the legal rights of the parish.

They ask to be discharged from the consideration of this subject.

On motion, the recommendation of the Committee was adopted.

The question as to whether the members of the Sunday-school Commission should be annually appointed by the Bishop or elected by the Convention having been referred to the Committee on Canons, the Committee report that they learn that the Sunday-school Commission has been incorporated under the Membership Corporation Law, but has failed to make any provision by its By-laws or otherwise for the constitution of its membership by appointment by the Bishop or election by the Convention or otherwise to fix its relations to the Convention. The Committee consider that, as heretofore the Convention has elected the members of the Commission, it should do so this year. The Committee therefore so report and recommend, and they further move the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be instructed to prepare a new canon, fully defining the status of the Sunday-school Commission and its relations to the Convention and to report to the next Convention."

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks presented the Report of the Committee on Inadequate Salaries of the Clergy.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INADEQUATE CLERICAL SALARIES.

The Committee appointed to take into consideration the whole subject of inadequate clerical salaries in the Diocese of New York, begs leave respectfully to report as follows:

First. Your Committee finds that there are in the Diocese of New York twenty-one parishes or mission stations paying less than $1,200 to the Rector or Minister in charge. Of these fifteen are married and are in receipt of the following salaries:

- 1—None.
- 1—$410.00.
- 1—$749.25.
- 2—$600.00, with Rectory.
- 1—$800.00, with Rectory.
- 2—$900.00, with Rectory.
- 7—$1,000.00, with Rectory.
- 1—$1,080.00, with Rectory.

Six are single and are in receipt of the following salaries:

- 3—$600.00.
- 1—$620.00.
- 1—$825.00.
- 1—$800.00, with Rectory.

Second. In the opinion of your Committee, the Diocese of New York should

(a) Guarantee a minimum salary of $1,200 to each unmarried clergyman, and $1,200 and a rectory, or $1,500 to each married clergyman having charge of one or more mission stations under the direction of the Diocese.

(b) And offer to co-operate with any parish, paying less than the above-named minimum to its minister, which will agree to raise a sum equal to one-third of the amount needed.

Third. In order to pay every clergyman the minimum above indicated, it will be necessary to raise the sum of at least $10,000 for the accomplishment of which several expedients are suggested:

(a) That a tax of 2 per cent. be levied upon the salary of each clergyman in the Diocese and an equal amount be assessed upon each parish.

(b) That an assessment equal to 15 per cent. of the amount of the apportionment for Foreign and Domestic Missions be laid on each parish.

(c) That a compulsory annual collection be taken in each Church on the first Sunday in January as a supplementary fund for inadequate salaries.

(d) That a sum of twenty-five cents be assessed on each communicant in the Diocese, the same to be collected by the Rector of a parish or minister of a mission station in such way as may seem to him best.

Fourth. All moneys collected for this purpose shall be paid to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, and it shall be their duty:

(a) To distribute the moneys so collected in such manner that each married clergyman in charge of one or more mission stations shall receive a salary of $1,200 if there be a rectory in connection with such station, or $1,500 if there be no rectory.

(b) To communicate with each parish paying to its minister less than the above-named minimum and offer to make good the deficit, provided the parish will itself raise one-third of the amount needed for that purpose.

Fifth. It shall be the duty of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund to report to each Diocesan Convention the names of parishes paying less than the above-named minimum.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

LEIGHTON PARKS.

HUGH BIRCKHEAD.

CHAS. F. HOFFMAN.

The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Convention the minimum salary of Rector or Minister-in-charge of church or chapel should be $1,500 or $1,200, and a suitable residence, for a married clergyman, and $1,200 for an unmarried clergyman.

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese be respectfully requested to communicate the above resolution, if it be adopted, to the several parishes, and ask that a collection be taken in every church and chapel on the first Sunday in January, 1909, and on the first Sunday of January of each year thereafter until further notice, to supplement the inadequate salaries of certain of the clergy in accordance with requirements of the foregoing resolution.

Which were adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Campbell offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Inadequate Salaries of Clergy be continued and requested to report at the next Diocesan Convention on the practical working of the resolution passed, and to give any further suggestion that may be needed to carry into effect the intention of the Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Committee on Canons presented the following report:

8. The Committee have considered the resolution introduced by the Rev. Pascal Harrower, amending Canon 4 ("Of the Admission of Churches," etc.) by adding a new section, to be Section 4, as follows:

“ No Church shall be admitted into union with the Church in this Diocese which is not self-supporting.”

The Committee approve of the principle embodied in this amendment, but consider that the term “ self-supporting ” requires definition, and they therefore propose that the Canon be amended as follows:

(a) In Section 1, first paragraph, after the words “ and all the rules, orders and regulations of the Convention,” insert the following: “ and to pay to its rector so long as it shall remain in union with the Convention, in regular monthly or quarterly instalments, a salary of not less than $1,000 per annum, and to provide for him a suitable residence or a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof.”

(b) In Section 1, second paragraph, at the end add the following: “ and also a certificate executed by authority of the Vestry or of the meeting, under the hand of the Clerk of the Vestry or of the Secretary of the meeting, authenticated by the seal of the corporation, to the effect that such church or congregation is willing and able among its own members to raise at least $1,000 per annum for the salary of its rector, and to provide a suitable residence for him, or, in cases where no residence is provided, a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof.”

The Rev. P. Harrower moved the following amendment:

Resolved, That the sum stated in the recommendation of Committee on Canons—viz., $1,000—be changed to the sum $1,200, as the amount of salary to be guaranteed to the rector of a parish seeking admission into union with the Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Manning moved that the canon be recommitted to the Committee on Canons to report this afternoon.

The Rev. Dr. Nichols called for the regular order of business, which was the election of members of Standing Committee and Federate Council.

The Rev. Dr. Grosvenor moved that the polls be opened and remain open till a quarter before two o'clock, which was adopted.

The chair announced recess for one hour.

On reassembling, Dr. Van Kleeck moved the reconsideration of his motion that the Convention sit as a Board of Missions immediately after luncheon, which was adopted.

On reconsideration, the Convention did not adopt the special order.

The Rev. J. E. Freeman, for the Committee on Social Service, offered the resolutions offered by that Committee.

Mr. Francis L. Stetson offered the following resolutions as a substitute for the resolutions of the Committee:

Resolved, That, upon the call of the Commission on Social Service, in and be printed in the Journal of this Convention, which expresses its appreciation of, and its thanks for, the faithful discharge of their duties by the members of the Committee; and that the Committee be and hereby is continued and constituted a Commission on Social Service, with jurisdiction of the several matters embraced in its report, and particularly to supervise the organization of appropriate boards in the several archdeaconries and to confer with such boards and from time to time to report to the Convention.

Resolved, That, upon the call of the Commission on Social Service, in each Archdeaconry each parish shall appoint one clerical and one lay delegate, to a Social Service Board for such archdeaconry upon the subjects embraced in the report by the Committee on Social Service to the Convention of 1908, to be called in each Archdeaconry the Social Service Board, and to consist of all the delegates so chosen, and also of the Archdeacon, and of one representative of the Commission on Social Service ex-officio.

Every such Social Service Board shall meet and shall organize under the direction of the representative of the Commission for such Social Service Board as temporary chairman, and shall perfect its organization by the election or appointment of such permanent officers and committees as it shall deem proper, with such powers as it shall deem desirable.

From time to time, upon the call of the Commission on Social Service, or its Chairman, the five several Social Service Boards may meet in convention, and therein may exercise general power in the premises, including the power to enlarge the scope of the activities of the several boards; and the several Social Service Boards or Executive Committees in any Archdeaconry from time to time may confer and co-operate with the like boards or committees in the other Archdeaconries.

Every such Social Service Board, and the Executive Committee thereof, in each Archdeaconry shall have power therein:

(a) In their discretion, from time to time to appoint fraternal delegates to confer, or to sit with, any local labor organization, or any association of wage earners or any association of employers.

(b) To invite any local labor organization or any association of wage earners or any association of employers to send representatives to take such part as may be mutually agreeable in any meeting of the Social Service Board or the Executive Committee in any Archdeaconry.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocesan Fund be authorized to pay to the Commission for incidental expenses the sum of fifty dollars, without further expense or responsibility on part of the Convention, the Commission being free to solicit and to receive any gifts for the purposes herein indicated.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in view of the report and recommendation of the Committee on Inadequate Salaries of the Clergy, the resolution amending the Canon on the subject of the admission of Parishes into union with the Convention be re-committed to the Committee on Canons for consideration and report at the next Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Courtney offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That Rule 7 be altered by the insertion of the words of Section 4 of Rule VI., preceded by the number 8, after the words "reception of their reports"; and that number 9 be inserted before the words "miscellaneous business." That the numbers of the sections in Rule VI. be altered correspondingly.

On motion, the amendments were adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Van Kleeck moved that the Convention now sit as a Board of Missions.

Rev. Chas. S. Burch, D.D., moved that the reading of the reports of the Archdeacons be dispensed with.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF ORANGE.

In behalf of the Archdeaconry of Orange, the Archdeacon respectfully reports:

That since the last meeting of Convention the Rev. Robert Landsberger, Missionary at Highland, departed this life. The Archdeacon, with the Rev. Francis B. Whiteome, of St. Paul's Church, Poughkeepsie, and the Rev. George H. Trickett, of Marlborough, conducted the funeral services at the parish Church of the Holy Trinity, Highland, where a large congregation was gathered. The interment took place in the Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery. His successor is the Rev. Eli D. Sutcliffe, who unites New Paltz to this charge. Other changes have occurred through the resignations of the Rev. Geo. H. Trickett, of Marlborough and Milton, and, in October, of the Rev. W. O. Jarvis, of Liberty. Through weekly supplies, services have been maintained at both points, and we hope soon for permanent incumbents.

Services at St. Thomas' Chapel, Rifton, were resumed by the Rev. Henry Barker on All Saints' Day, and he reports the Chapel as being crowded and the prospects bright.

The usual summer services were maintained at Mead's Mount in the Catskills, and some Sundays were filled at Big Indian.

At Greenwood Lake the services have been remarkably well attended, though on account of the financial stringency the contributions from summer visitors were not as large as the year before.

Holy Communion has been administered monthly to large numbers of communicants during May, June, July, August and September. A new departure was made during the warm season which met with gratifying success. It was an open air vesper service on the lake shore, the minister or lay reader standing on a sufficiently elevated portion of the chapel to be seen and heard. My hearers will remember that the chapel is situated on Chapel Island, and, therefore, in close proximity to the waters of Greenwood Lake. Over fifty (50) boats, large and small, with their passengers were drawn up within hearing distance, besides the people on the shore. One gentleman made the estimate that the average vesper congregations in August numbered over two hundred. Best of all, our lay reader, Mr. Chapman, of the General Seminary, reports that the services were characterized by a spirit of true devotion, and that the people in the boats, many from quite a long distance, came to worship, and not to see a show. The whole scene, as one pictures it to his imagination, really seems quite apostolic.

To set forth how much appreciated are the chapel services, I would add that the summer congregations at Morning Prayer frequently filled the chapel, seating 150 or more, to overflowing.

During the summer, in addition to church collections, some three hundred dollars were raised for the building fund, etc.

A new altar and reredos have been given by Mrs. Cortelyou in memory of her husband, and they were built by our lay reader, assisted by one of the lads of the Mission.

The work at New Paltz has arrived at such a stage that action looking towards raising funds for the erection of a church building becomes imperative. With Bishop Potter's approval, a circular was sent out by the Committee appointed (a copy of which is here appended, marked A). It gives in a concise form the facts of the case. Some sixteen hundred dollars are already pledged for the building fund. An eligible lot has been secured and paid for.

We have a devoted missionary, a man of wide experience in this up-building work, in charge of the mission, the Rev. Eli D. Sutcliffe, and we all sincerely hope that in the quick revival and extension of business—sure signs of which are already apparent—contributions may be released and many made possible which during the recent panic have been necessarily withheld; and that the full amount needed for the building may be obtained. It is of great importance that foundation and superstructure should be completed without undue delay, as an Episcopal Church in their midst will be to students and residents an object lesson of the best and most convincing kind.

The Archdeaconry of Orange begs your co-operation in the following work, which it believes must be undertaken for the growth of the Church in this Diocese.

APPEAL, EXHIBIT A.

New Paltz, Ulster County, N. Y., is a town of 2,200 inhabitants, situated on the Wallkill Valley Railroad and connected by trolley with Highland and several intervening hamlets; the rural attractions and the proximity of Lake Mohonk add a summer population of about 1,000.

In the town there are three religious organizations, Dutch Reformed, Methodist and Roman Catholic. There are about twenty-five confirmed members of the Church, some of whom are interested in one of the above organizations. The State Normal School located there has about 300 pupils, chiefly women, drawn largely from the rural part of the Diocese and in it beginning their work as teachers. There are from twenty to thirty communicants among the students.

There is, as a result of tentative work there with services in a basement hall, a strong desire in New Paltz for the ministrations of the Church, and a willingness to do all possible towards securing and maintaining them.

The Archdeaconry can supply these ministrations; but of course cannot build the chapel necessary, though it is helping through the gifts of its parishes and missions; and the few people at New Paltz are unable to do more than make an earnest beginning. Yet the Church must minister to these communicants; and both conserve and extend its influence on those who are taking up the work of school teaching in our rural counties.

The only solution is to erect a church building by an appeal to the Diocese at large.

This appeal is authorized by the Archdeaconry and is heartily endorsed by the Bishop of the Diocese, as is indicated by his personal contribution of fifty dollars.

A suitable lot has been purchased; and it is proposed to build a small chapel. The Archdeaconry has appointed Mr. David E. Allen, New Paltz, N. Y., the treasurer of the building fund; and earnestly asks the contribution of your congregation to a work which has an especial appeal in that it will not only make feasible the supplying of the ministrations of the Church to the feeble congregation at Highland and to the few communicants permanently resident at New Paltz, but will make possible an adequate presentation of the Church's life at an educational centre from which the teaching force of many of our rural schools is recruited.

OCTAVIUS APPLGATE,
W. J. CLARKE AGNEW,
DAVID E. ALLEN,
Committee.

Within the bounds of the Archdeaconry the local apportionment for Diocesan Missions has proved successful.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF WESTCHESTER.

My report of work done in the Diocese, and especially Mission work, the last year may not fail to note the great loss and the universal sorrow which came to us in the passing to his rest in Paradise of our honored and beloved Bishop. Within the Church and without, and among all sorts and conditions of men, have been voiced tributes and eulogies of the character, life and work of Bishop Potter. They have told of his splendid and successful episcopate; his personal adornments and culture; his touch and influence in the city, his fame at home and abroad, his brilliant outspoken words, bold, clear and timely, which, as occasion or need required, came from his pen or voice. And, best of all, they were true, just and comprehensive. But in our own, our diocesan family, and to us in the Archdeaconries, for he was so near and dear to us as loving, loyal children, we would utter our sincere note of praise, we would speak of our gratitude to God for such a father, and for his wise and constant service rendered to the Missions in the Diocese. In his great heart there was no interest, and he had large tasks, important urgent matters ever pressing upon him, in which he had more concern or gave more constant care than the Archdeaconries of the Diocese and the band of self-sacrificing clergy who served them. They can testify from personal experience of his grace and gifts, of his coming into their life, their missions, their homes, and of the courage and inspiration they got from their contact with him. Early in his Episcopate one said to me, looking at our Bishop when presiding over the Convention, "He is a prince of prelates." Yet he was none the less a good shepherd of the flock, a faithful Bishop of souls.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

The Archdeaconry of Westchester has had a year of good work and encouragement. While the growths in population are rapid and increasing near the city, and we cannot do as we would in opening up new work and adequately meeting urgent needs, the rectors of large parishes are doing all they can in their respective neighborhoods to care for and minister to the Church's children.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

At our most remote mission—Lewisborough and South Salem—the Rev. Charles M. Selleck still does the work with wonted fidelity, and has the abiding affection and confidence of his people. The first of January he shall have rounded out his twenty-fifth year of service for us. His scattered flock on the hills and in the vales of his Cure meet him each Lord's Day, the children gather for instruction, and the benediction of his life and character, as well as the dews of Divine grace and gifts bestowed in his sacred office, bless his people.

The Rev. S. F. Holmes, of St. John's, Pleasantville, reports activity in parish life, church services, and warm zeal in his people in their efforts to build a new church. The Rector notes the annual coming into the parish of children of Grace-Emmanuel Church, New York, and that added to their summer Home the young people have built a chapel for their spiritual care. St. John's Guild, composed of faithful women who for years have been constant in good works for the parish, have paid off the balance of mortgage, $500, on the site for the new church. The habit of systematic giving in this parish is growing, and helping increasingly in the support of its work.

St. John's, Tuckahoe, is greatly prospering under the leadership of Rev. Henry N. Wayne, Priest in charge. Congregations are better, offerings larger, Sunday-school increasing.

St. Mary's Chapel, Sherwood Park, has lately incorporated. The church building is somewhat enlarged. This church has recently introduced the envelope system with good results. Three guilds for women, young women and boys have been formed. This parish has a large field, a growing population, which should be served by the Church.

St. Mark's, Tarrytown, Rev. Thomas A. H. Burke, Rector, is valiantly making a strong fight against great odds to save their fine church, parish house and rectory, and to serve that part of Tarrytown. Burdened by a debt inherited from former years and rectors, Mr. Burke, with his courage and industry, deserves sympathy and help. The Archdeaconry is doing what it can to aid him.

The Rev. George K. MacNought, Priest in charge of All Saints', Harrison, gives good report for the year. In every wise, while the place does not grow from without as we had hoped it would, this work is real, encouraging, hopeful. Congregations are good, faithful Sunday-school work goes on, buildings are kept in good repair. This church only awaits a bright future, for it is bound ere long to welcome an increase in the population of the place, and is ready for the incoming of new residents, who will not fail to find a home in this choice vicinage and in All Saints' Church.

PUTNAM COUNTY.

The old parish of Christ Church, Patterson, through its Rector, Rev. W. H. Meldrum, reports that a menace threatened church and village of late. In the condemnation proceedings for the great water-shed, from which Westchester and Putnam Counties have suffered for years, depriving them of well nigh all sources of water supply, rumor had it that village, homes and churches would be wiped out. But this calamity is now averted, at least for the present.

The parish church is well served by Mr. Meldrum, and he reports favorably as to attendance at services and Sunday-school. The new Pawling School, established by Dr. Gamage in the next village above Patterson, has brought ninety boys, half of whom are communicants, besides the masters and their families. Mr. Gamage has asked Mr. Meldrum to act as chaplain of the school, and he regularly gives them celebration of the Holy Communion and the other offices of the Church. He has also this summer given occasional services at St. Bartholomew's Home.

On July 1st, upon our nomination, the Bishop transferred the Rev. J. O. Davis from St. Joseph's Church, Elmsford, to the Church of the Holy Communion, Lake Mahopac, Richardville, and the Mission at West Somers. Mr. Davis reports that the season at the Lake has been good, and congregations at the church quite as large as usual. At Richardville, in the hills, Sunday-school and service each Sunday, are a comfort to the humble isolated folk, who always enjoy the ministrations of the Church.

West Somers continues, with the help of a Lay Reader, to thrive. By special gifts, the Church has been completed by the erection of a church tower and a bell. Mr. Davis adds, "I cannot speak too highly of the energy and faithfulness of the Women's Guild at West Somers. This little Mission Church has paid all apportionments for Missions, Diocesan and General, and the assessments placed upon it by the Convention."

St. Luke's, Haverstraw, Grace Church, Tompkins Cove and Jones's Point are served by Rev. W. A. Masker. The changes and chances of life and work have been sadly marked in the experience of the years in Haverstraw. Some years, as work was to be had and good times prevailed, St. Luke's prevailed, St. Luke's flourished. Other years, when the work of the brick-yards shut down, people moved away and calamity befell, as in a landslide not long ago, the place and the Church suffered. Still the testimony of the Church's life has been kept up, services regular and frequent maintained. Mr. Masker has served the whole country-side when called, in his journeyings between stations. Sickness this year has made his work hard, but he continues bravely in his lot.

Spring Valley, New City and Pearl River have had since July the efficient work of Rev. Albert T. Keane. We hope, with the Bishop's approval, to give him in charge the original group of Missions, which under his temporary care promise growth and progress in the future. New City, whose Vestry desire a resident rector, has consented for a while to share the service of Mr. Keane with the other stations.

Trinity Church, Garnerville, Rev. C. C. Proffitt, Rector, reports that during the year his church has barely held its own. Members have been depleted by the removal of several families from the place hitherto helpful in the work. A reredos has been given of carved oak, adding beauty to the sanctuary, in memory of Mr. James G. West, for many years a vestryman of Trinity. The services are well attended, and the good women are active and zealous in their efforts to assist the Vestry in their support of the parish.

Rev. Thomas Stephens, for twenty-three years devoted missionary in Rockland County, now Rector Emeritus of St. John's, New City, has been giving good work by clerical supplies, as opportunity offered, and kind and sympathetic ministrations in the lonely homes of Rockland. He has a mind to work, with advancing years and physical infirmities. All honor to this venerable man, whose fine character and ceaseless labors have made both clergy and laymen of the Archdeaconry so fond of his person and grateful for his consecrated ministry.

The Rev. Mr. Hammarsköld, General Missionary of the Church for the Swedes, reports regular services in our Archdeaconry. It has been our privilege of late to assist him somewhat by contribution to his work. There are so many Swedes within our borders, and he has been so willing to come to the aid of our rectors, in their behalf, that the Archdeaconry feels a deep interest in his work. They who meet or hear this man of God are compelled to honor him, and, if possible, to serve him, as he so devotedly ministers to his people.

With very grateful acknowledgment to the clergy and parishes of New York for their aid in the past and earnest prayer that they may continue to help us in our work,

We most respectfully submit,

FREDERICK B. VAN KLEECK,
Archdeacon of Westchester.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF DUTCHESS.

In presenting to the Convention of the Dioceses a statement of the present condition of the work in the Archdeaconry of Dutchess, reference must first be made to the great loss which we, in common with the whole Diocese, have sustained in the lamented death of our beloved Bishop the late Right Rev. H. C. Potter, D.D. His death was in a peculiar sense a severe affliction to the County of Dutchess. He was the chaplain of the Dutchess County Society in the City of New York, and all the members of that Society have heard him speak of his relations to Dutchess County and of his affection for the home of his ancestors. His father, the late Bishop of Pennsylvania, and his uncle, the late Bishop of the Diocese of New York, were both born in the neighborhood of La Grange in Dutchess County, and went to school in the old Dutchess academy. They were the sons of Joseph Potter, a Quaker farmer of a Rhode Island family. While at school in Poughkeepsie these two Quaker lads wandered into Christ Church and felt the charm of its service, "and that was the beginning," the Bishop was wont to say, "of their connection with the Episcopal Church."

No wonder the Bishop always took a warm and affectionate interest in the extension of the Church in Dutchess County. He often spoke of his Quaker ancestry, of his father's boyhood days, of his grandfather's Dutchess County home. Bishop Potter's career was distinctive in the annals of the Church, known far and wide for the strong individuality of its leaders. His conception of the duties and privileges of the Christian ministry was very broad, and imposed upon him ceaseless activity in many varying directions. He felt profoundly the brotherhood of the race; and he manifested courage, force, independence of judgment and great unselfishness in the application of the principle to the relation of daily life.

Refined in his tastes, alive to the charm of culture, highly cultured himself, possessing rare social gifts, an accomplished speaker with a style peculiarly his own, uniting grace and dignity, complete ease with earnestness; a wise ruler, a judicious counsellor, a tried friend, a humble Christian, he will be ranked among the great bishops of the Church. He leaves a grateful and distinguished memory in both the Church and the world.

Coming now to the staff of clergy at work in the Archdeaconry, we have to report the death of one and the removal of another of our number. The Rev. W. R. Harris, of the Diocese of New Jersey, a son of the late Dr. Harris, sometime Rector of Grace Church, White Plains, has for a year past been the Missionary of Dover Plains. He was not as widely known to his brethren in the county as many others, but in his short time of service had won the love of his people, and large results were looked for in the parish because of his kindly disposition and judicious manner of work. God called him to Himself late in October, and the Mission is again without a priest. A small debt, $380, still rests upon the Church.

Temporary provision for the services have been made in the appointment of Mr. A. C. Burdick, a Lay Reader and candidate for Holy Orders, who also continues his acceptable work at Stone House.

The neighborhood Home at this Mission in West Pawling, built as a memorial of a Miss Taylor, long interested in the Mission, is completed and furnished and serves as an assembly room as well as for Church services.

The Day School is a most interesting feature of the work here, and, as the record of attendance shows, is appreciated by the people of the place.

The Rev. Joseph Ivie, after several years of faithful ministry, has resigned St. John the Baptist Church, at Glenham, to accept a work in this city. The two parishes, Trinity, Fishkill, and St. John the Baptist, Glenham, have signified to the Archdeacon their intention to unite in calling a Rector, and for the future feel that they shall need no financial aid from the Archdeaconry.

The Rev. Mr. Green, of Fishkill Landing, has charge also of St. Mark's Church, Chelsea. He reports that services have been regularly maintained throughout the summer.

The interior of the Church has been thoroughly renovated and redecorated. This attractive little building is now in good condition. The expense has been met by the congregation. Though the work is in some respects discouraging, yet for the sake of the few loyal and earnest Church people, as well as for the possibilities of the future, it is deemed best to continue the services. Three persons have been confirmed.

At Pleasant Valley, the Rev. R. R. Upjohn, Missionary, there have been 7 baptisms (adults 5, infants 2) and 5 confirmed. The number of communicants is 87.

Last spring the Missionary received a check for $500 from the Parochial Fund Society, to be used for any necessary improvements on the rectory. The title to the rectory is vested in the Trustees of this Fund. The improvements, therefore, are upon their own property and greatly to the advantage of the parish. The Missionary wishes to express his gratitude for this generous gift; and in particular remembers our late beloved Diocesan for his warmhearted support of his petition. The outlook in this field is full of encouragement.

At the Church of the Resurrection, Hopewell Junction, there have been 6 baptisms, and the number of communicants is 40. The interest of the people has been manifested by their regular attendance at the church services and by their increased contributions. There is no debt. A new roof has been put upon the church at a cost of $200, and the Archdeaconry apportionment has been paid.

One hundred and forty-six dollars have been received from outside sources for the building of a rectory, which is sorely needed, not only as a house for the Missionary, but for the more effective work of the parish. No house can be rented. I commend this project most heartily to the friends of the Mission.

The conditions of the other mission stations remain very much as they were last year. The regular routine work has been carried on without interruption, and the reports of the Missionaries indicate a healthful and hopeful condition of affairs.

The Treasurer's Report is herewith appended. The names of the missionaries and their stations have been sent to the Secretary of Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

A. T. ASHTON,
Archdeacon.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF NEW YORK.

We come in mourning before the Convention with our Annual Report. We share a heartfelt bereavement with the other Archdeaconries of the Diocese and with the Church at large. We are bereft of a father in God whose leadership for twenty-five years was a conspicuous example of great gifts consecrated to great uses. But he was more than our Diocesan. Like Joseph's fruitful bough by a well, whose branches run over the wall, the influence of Bishop Potter's rare personality reached beyond the household of faith. During the long period of his Episcopate he was easily recognized as the foremost citizen of our foremost city. Throughout all the churches his name was a tower of strength; even among the churchless it was a household word spelling brotherhood and lifting hope to a higher level.

Not the least of the monuments of his greatness is the Archdeaconry system of the Diocese. His was a noble and notable type of the missionary spirit, which is the sign and test of the living Church. With the prophetic insight which was one of his best gifts, he long ago recognized the importance of dividing the Diocese into five missionary districts to meet growing demands for the more thorough development of missionary enterprise. He was especially mindful of the urgent need of organized and concentrated effort for Church Extension, particularly in the fast filling up neighborhoods of the Bronx, and among multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. While we sorrow that we may see his face no more, we are thankful for what he has been and still is to us, and we rejoice that the standard which he held up before us so long and so well is going on and leading us on in strong hands veined with the same spirit of wise missionary fervor.

The past year has bereaved us also of one of our most valued missionaries. On the night of June 23d, at the Rectory, Williamsbridge, the Rev. Franklin Nelson Strader, in the prime of life and vigor, died suddenly of heart disease, which seems to have been the final result of a fever which prostrated him for a time while he was on duty in the South as the Chaplain of a New York regiment in the war with Spain. He had been in charge of St. George's Church, Willett Avenue and 219th Street, ever since the new edifice was built three years ago. He was a graduate of Columbia College and the General Theological Seminary. He was devout in spirit, an earnest preacher of the Gospel, a faithful and beloved pastor, and loyally diligent in the performance of every duty.

The work of Church Extension during the past year has been marked by progress at every point. The movement of families from congested centres of population in Manhattan to more roomy districts in the Bronx is naturally one explanation of this encouraging growth of usefulness. All around our chapels the population is steadily increasing, and this means that the congregations and Sunday-schools are increasing. The wage-earners who, for the most part, make up these congregations have invariably put forth their own best efforts in co-operation with ours. The baptismal services at the font, the Sunday-schools, the confirmation classes, the attendance at religious services and the membership in various Church clubs are not the only evidences that the people appreciate their privileges. They show their appreciation also by paying all chapel expenses except the missionary's salary. Each congregation, therefore, is in course of preparation to become in due time entirely self-supporting, like the five other similar congregations of our Archdeaconry Missions in the Bronx which have passed on to parochial independence.

As usual, we have been fortunate in having the services of clergymen and others of admirable fitness for their several posts of duty. Only a few changes have taken place in our missionary staff. Our present co-workers include the Rev. Percival McIntyre, St. Stephen's Church, Woodlawn; the Rev. Stanley Brown-Serman, Chapel of the Atonement; Mr. Duncan H. Browne, Lay Reader, St. Martha's Chapel; the Rev. E. G. Clifton, St. David's Chapel; the Rev. R. H. Wevill, Chapel of the Holy Spirit; the Rev. George E. Talmage, Emmanuel Chapel, he having succeeded the Rev. Chesley Gantt, the former being now and the latter having been Deacon of Grace Church; the Rev. Carmelo Di Sano, St. Ambrose Italian Chapel. Ministrations at St. George's Church, Williamsbridge, are supplied by clergymen in accordance with temporary arrangements made by the Archdeacon. The Rev. James A. Skinner continues on duty as a General Missionary, his principal duty being the celebration of the Holy Communion at Chapels in charge of Deacons or Lay Readers.

Six missions have their own houses of worship, though one of them, St. David's, has as yet only a large crypt. Under the will of the Rev. Dr. Charles Comfort Tiffany, sometime Archdeacon of New York, the sum of $14,500 is available for this work among our colored brethren, and the outlook there is more than ever cheering. The missions of Emmanuel and the Holy Spirit are still in rented quarters, but the latter has lately moved from the hall which it formerly occupied to a small chapel leased from a Dutch Reformed congregation which has no further use for it. We are still hoping for funds with which to provide permanent homes for these two congregations.

We are glad to report that a missionary work of no little promise has been inaugurated at the Diocesan House. A mutual benefit club of Frenchmen, most of whom do not speak English, was organized there early this autumn. It now numbers forty-three members over eighteen years of age, and they manifest a lively interest in the weekly lectures and occasional entertainments provided for them. It is expected that other enterprises of a similar kind, especially for persons of alien speech, will increase the usefulness of the Diocesan House.

Our summer work included outings, a majority of them being for two weeks, for five hundred and eighty beneficiaries, mostly women and children, besides Sunday-school excursions.

We are thankful to the parishes and individuals who have favored us with kind contributions in support of the Archdeaconry's work, and we gratefully acknowledge the receipt of gifts, including a large Bible from the Girls' Friendly Society of Calvary Church; altar, altar rail and choir stalls from the Church of the Ascension; choir stalls from the Chapel of the Intercession, Trinity Parish; a cross for St. George's Church, Williamsbridge; one hundred garments from the Needlework Guild, given on application from the Woman's Archdeaconry Committee of Calvary Church.

It is not as well known perhaps as it ought to be, that the Church House in the Bronx, Crotona Park and 171st Street, is one of the most important centres of missionary usefulness in the city. It is a veritable beehive of activity, and accomplishes results sweeter than honey and the honeycomb to multitudes of the Church's sons and daughters. The rooms of the Men's Club, including a reading-room and library, are open every evening to its 450 members, who have the use of a bowling alley five evenings and of a gymnasium three evenings in the week. The Girls' Club, also equipped with a reading-room and library, has an equally large membership, with social re-unions and classes in literature, calisthenics and dancing. The Boys' Club, with 350 members, has privileges similar to those of the Men's Club, with the addition of an inner circle for debates. Besides all this, there are lectures every Saturday evening under the auspices of the Board of Education in the principal auditorium, which accommodates over 1,200 persons; an Oratorio Society under the direction of Mr. Gustav Viehl, who also conducts choir rehearsals. Concerts and lectures are arranged from time to time, and an amateur orchestra is now being formed. Although no chapel is connected with the Church House, there is a united religious service in the auditorium at four o'clock on the last Sunday afternoon of each month from November to May inclusive, many of the clergy of the Bronx with their choirs taking part in the service.

The working staff of the Church House includes Mr. Duncan H. Browne, candidate for Holy Orders, Superintendent; the Rev. Theodore Andrews, the Rev. Frederick T. Ashton and the Rev. Harold L. R. Thomas, assisting at St. Ann's Church, St. Mary's and the Church of the Mediator respectively, and the Rev. Stanley Brown-Serman, in charge of the Chapel of the Atonement. Miss Florence Rapallo is in charge of the Girls' Department. It will thus be seen that the influence of the Church House reaches out in all directions beyond its own walls. And one of its most important auxiliaries is St. Agatha's Deaconess House adjoining the Church House. Its staff includes the following Deaconesses, viz.: Clara H. Simpson, on duty at St. Martha's Mission; Ellen M. Taylor, St. Ann's Parish; Clarine V. B. Woodward, St. James's Parish; Julia Stevenson, St. Mary's Church, Mott Haven, and Mabel Nicholas, St. Simeon's Church; also Augusta Kawczynski, on duty at the Chapel of the Atonement, and Rebecca Armstrong, at St. Agatha's, who are about to be set apart as Deaconesses.

The work of the Church House and of St. Agatha's Deaconess House, of which this is a brief outline, has been established by Bishop Greer upon enduring foundations. It is a gratifying characteristic of all the work in the Bronx inaugurated and carried on by our Archdeaconry Trustees that it is also of permanent value, although not endowed. But all that has been done is only the beginning of a forward movement in a most promising field. The Bishop well reminds us in his stirring Convention Address that this is our opportunity-time. It is especially so in Manhattan and the Bronx, where great opportunities are calling to the Church as clearly as any trumpet's peal ever called courage to action. We have done what we could to meet them. Will the Clergy and the Laity help us to do more?

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. NELSON,

Archdeacon of New York.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF RICHMOND.

November 1, 1908.

So far as concerns the former established or settled missionary work of the Archdeaconry of Richmond, a fairly satisfactory progress may be recorded for the past year. Not only the mission stations, organized and unorganized, have registered gratifying advances as a result of the efforts of the Missionaries, but the assisted parishes as well, and this, too, in the face of the financial stress that has affected, more or less, all religious as well as all business endeavor during the year.

Trinity Parish, New Dorp, has emerged from its position of dependency, and on May 1st its Rector, the Rev. Wood Stewart, notified the Archdeaconry that the parish would no longer ask aid from the Archdeaconry treasury.

St. Stephen's Parish, Tottenville, has finished a new Rectory and effected such a reorganization of its finances as will henceforth render more effective the efforts of its Rector, the Rev. Guy A. Jamieson, in the upbuilding of the Church's work at this end of the Island, where the new industries under way and projected will very soon bring a largely increased population to the parish for its ministrations.

In a material way, All Saints' Church, Mariner's Harbor, another assisted parish (the Rev. J. B. Blanchet, D.D., Rector), has suffered much through the shutting down of the steel mills and other industries, as a result of the panic of 1907. Many workmen and members of the clerical forces of these establishments removed, at least temporarily, from Mariner's Harbor, cutting off some of the revenues of the parish. In spite of these unfavorable conditions the Rector of All Saints' has forged ahead, strengthened the parish and by his labors in his own field and in other parts of the Archdeaconry has made a record of official acts, such as baptisms, burials and special services, that will compare favorably with the record of rectors of much larger parishes. With returning prosperity, Dr. Blanchet proposes to redouble his efforts for the erection of a new and suitable church plant on the fine property purchased two years ago.

In May last the Rev. D. A. Rocca was engaged to continue the Italian missionary work in Mariner's Harbor, and an arrangement made by which All Saints' Church and Parish House were used jointly for the American and Italian congregations. Mr. Rocca has in the six months that have passed won a strong hold upon the Italians in Mariner's Harbor, and secured a loyal following of his countrymen who with him are very anxious to possess, as soon as possible, a Church home of their own. Efforts looking to this end have been vigorously pushed, and there is in hand the nucleus of a fund which it is confidently believed will soon grow to such proportions as will warrant the purchase or building of an independent church plant which would assist largely in the furthering of this important work on Staten Island among the large and increasing Italian population. Two years' experience with this missionary work have shown that it is a needed, indeed, an urgent work; not a work of proselytizing, of drawing away adherents of the Roman or any other Communion to ours, but an appealing work in the ministering to those who are unshepherded and who gladly accept our ministrations. Both Mr. Rocca and the Archdeacon are very desirous of extending operations among the Italians and beginning definite work in other localities on Staten Island, where they reside in large numbers.

St. Simon's Mission, Concord, the Rev. Wm. G. Thompson, Minister-in-charge, has shown commendable progress the past year, particularly in the matter of improvements made to the church property. Lighting by electricity has been introduced, Rectory, Parish House and Church have been added to, repaired and redecorated not only, but the spiritual life of the parish strengthened, the roots of the Church's life taking deeper hold on the community life about the parish. The people of St. Simon's are seriously considering an independent parish organization, which will no doubt be effected in the near future.

Services continue to be maintained by members of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood at the Marine Hospital, at the Mill Road Mission, New Dorp Beach and at the Actor's Home, where, under the direction of Mr. Arthur A. Michell (one of the Archdeaconry Trustees) the interest and attendance are constantly growing. The clergy of Staten Island make the addresses, and the meetings have attained a remarkable degree of interest and effectiveness.

The work at the Church of the Holy Comforter, Eltingville, gives much encouragement under the immediate and energetic supervision of Mr. David Bowen, a student at the General Theological Seminary. Congregations at all services show a notable increase over a year ago, the Sunday-school continues to grow in numbers and important improvements are being made to church and parish house. The Archdeacon visits this mission at stated intervals for the celebration of the Holy Communion and endeavors to cover other unoccupied or uncared-for fields, but the experience of the past year has only emphasized the unsatisfactory and ineffectual character of this scattered or fragmentary effort in the constructive work of the Church in the Borough of Richmond. What is needed on Staten Island is two, if not three, additional missionaries to care for fields white to the harvest. So far as new work in this missionary district is concerned, the past year has shown no progress whatever. The last Convention approved of an apportionment of $2,200 to the Archdeaconry of Richmond, an increase of $500 over the previous year's apportionment. We have received $1,300 or $900 less than the apportionment and $400 less than we received from the Treasurer of Diocesan Mission Board during the previous year. We owe over $500, mainly to our Missionaries, and this in spite of contributions generously given us in our stress by the Rectors of St. Bartholomew's, Trinity, the Church of the Incarnation, the Domestic Branch of the New York Woman's Auxiliary, the Bishop of the Diocese and others. Every Staten Island Church has paid its full apportionment to November 1st, and if we had received the amount of our apportionment from the treasury of the Diocesan Mission Board we would be free of obligations, with money in the treasury to prosecute new work. Whether we are to undertake the work pressing upon us in the near future, depends upon whether this Convention shall devise some method by which the Archdeaconries shall receive the aid they must have to keep up their work, or whether this one item of our Diocesan duty, the payment of our own Missionaries shall, as for some time past be, in large measure, disregarded.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES S. BUECH,
Archdeacon.

The Rev. Dr. Cole presented the Report on the General Theological Seminary.

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Instead of making the usual formal report, your Committee desires to present to the Convention a statement and a recommendation.

Article III. of the Constitution of the General Theological Seminary provides that "the Board of Trustees shall be constituted as follows: Every Bishop of the Church, and the Dean of the Seminary, shall be entitled to be a member of the Board. There shall also be fifty other Trustees, twenty-five of whom shall be appointed by certain Dioceses on the basis of their former contributions to the Seminary, as follows: New York, ten; Western New York, one; Long Island, two; Albany, one; Central New York, one; New Jersey, one; Newark, one; Massachusetts, one; Pennsylvania, three; Maryland, one; North Carolina, one; South Carolina, two; and the remaining twenty-five shall be chosen by the House of Deputies at each stated General Convention." As sixty-six of the Bishops of the Church have, in accordance with the Constitution, signified in writing their willingness to serve as Trustees, the Board of Trustees of the General Theological Seminary now numbers one hundred and seventeen members—manifestly an unwieldy body. Moreover, as the usual attendance at an annual meeting is between thirty and forty, it must be, to a great extent, an uninformed body.

This constitution of the Board has long been unsatisfactory to those who have felt an interest in the Seminary, and now that the conflicting interests which compelled the compromise expressed in the above article have long been forgotten, a reduction in the numbers of the Board has frequently been proposed, and at the last General Convention a joint committee was appointed, having the reorganization of the Board of Trustees of the Seminary as one of its ultimate objects.

To this reorganization the primary obstacle is the right given by the Constitution to various dioceses to elect Trustees to represent them on the basis of former contributions to the Seminary. New York leads the list of these dioceses with the right to elect ten Trustees. It is proposed by your Committee that, as a start towards the greatly needed reorganization of the Board of Trustees of the General Theological Seminary, in order to clear the way for the work of the Joint Committee of the General Convention, the Diocese of New York, by vote of this Convention, surrender its right to elect Trustees of the General Theological Seminary; that this Committee on the General Theological Seminary be authorized by the Convention to confer with other dioceses that have a similar right to elect Trustees with a view to their surrender of that right; and, further, that your Committee be authorized to confer with the Joint Committee of the General Convention as to the course of action by this Diocese best calculated to further its work for the benefit of the Seminary.

Your Committee, therefore, begs leave to offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of New York hereby declares its willingness and intention to surrender its right, granted by Article III. of the Constitution of the General Theological Seminary, to elect annually ten Trustees of the said Seminary, provided that the other dioceses having similar rights under the said Constitution agree to make a like surrender.

Resolved, That the Committee on the General Theological Seminary be empowered and instructed to confer with the other dioceses having the right to elect Trustees of the General Theological Seminary, with a view to the surrender of all such privileges by the dioceses to which they are given by the Constitution of the Seminary, and to report the result of such conference to the next annual meeting of this Convention.

Resolved, That the Committee on the General Theological Seminary be empowered and instructed to confer with the Joint Committee on the General Theological Seminary appointed by the General Convention of 1907, as to the steps which can be taken by this Diocese to facilitate the work of the Joint Committee."

APPENDIX A.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

The last time I had the privilege of addressing you in Convention I concluded what I had to say with the following statement and suggestion:

“Next year will be the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Consecration to the Episcopate of the Bishop of this Diocese, and I beg to recommend to the Convention that some step be taken now, through the appointment of a Committee, for the appropriate commemoration of that notable event in the history of the Diocese.”

In pursuance of this recommendation, a resolution was introduced and unanimously adopted, calling for the appointment of such a proposed Committee, whose duty it should be to arrange and provide in connection with this Convention some kind of suitable and commemorative Service which would in a measure signify and show the affectionate admiration of the Diocese at large for its chief Diocesan Pastor. The Bishop himself was deeply touched by this expressed desire and purpose of the Convention, and I have in my possession a letter which he wrote expressing in the warmest terms his very deep and grateful appreciation of it; but requesting also that the proposed Service be for a time postponed, and until the completion of the Cathedral Choir and Crossing. In deference, therefore, to his wish, no action in the premises was taken at the time towards carrying out the resolution. It was postponed, but only postponed, so it was thought and hoped, to a not very distant day. But it has been otherwise ordered; and the anticipation which we had cherished of a future public rejoicing has been converted into a present grief and loss. And that distinguished man who for nearly a quarter of a century presided over this Diocese and the deliberations of this body, and whose presence with us to counsel and advise was so familiar to us, has been taken from us, and to-day we meet without him. The greatness of the loss which we have sustained in losing such a life, while deeply felt, is not easily voiced; not merely because that sense of loss is still so fresh and keen, and still so vivid in us, but for the further reason that the life of the late distinguished head of this Episcopal Diocese was so many sided that it is a difficult task, at the present time at least, to picture and portray it or to give its full and proper setting to it. We are too near to it, and that must be reserved for a later day, when I trust it will be done by a skilled and master hand, with a full and adequate biographical treatment.

This much, however, we now can see and say and confidently affirm, that whosoever hereafter shall undertake to tell the story of the Church for the past forty years, not only in this city and this Diocese, but elsewhere in the land, and throughout the whole scope and compass of its work, must of necessity tell the story of his life, as that of one of the leading and conspicuous figures in it.

But more than that. He was eminent as a Churchman, and loved his Church and served it; but his sympathies reached beyond it. They were very human. And while he had his preferences, personal and social as well as religious, he showed this mark of a true human greatness, that he did not have exclusions; and without regard to creed or race he loved his fellow men, and was always ready to work with those of every name who, like himself, were working for the common human good. It was this quality in him, this human quality in him, which brought him near to the people and endeared him to the people, and which at the time of his death elicited such spontaneous expression of regret, sympathy and sorrow. From all classes of persons these expressions came; not because he always tried to please them or was in agreement with them—he was too true to himself for that and to his own established convictions—but because they knew and never for a moment doubted that with his fine exceptional gifts he always tried to serve them.

Someone has remarked that the man who never disagrees with the people and who shrinks from unpopularity as the worst of evils can never have a share in moulding the traditions of a strong and virile race. Bishop Potter did not shrink from unpopularity: to those who did not know him well he seemed at times to court it.

But not so; he was built on larger lines, and simply aimed to do and say, faithfully and fearlessly, what he thought was wise and what he deemed was right; and while ready to listen to reason to show that he was wrong, and quick and frank when convinced to acknowledge and to own it, no mere clamor could swerve him from his course. And that is a type of character which always in the end commands confidence and respect and is always most admired; it is the character of a leader. So it was with him. He was not afraid to run the risk of making at times mistakes; and yet, when his life comes to be reviewed, it will, I think, be seen that he was not only a man of fine and clear perceptions with the courage of his convictions, but also a man of vision. This was shown in the choice he made for this Cathedral site, and where he hoped would be built in time a great free Church for the service of the people, but which many thought to be too far away from the people. But his was the better vision. He saw the rapid future growth and greatness of the city which he loved so much and understood so well, and knew that in a little while this great Cathedral pile (of which, although he was not one of the charter members, it may be justly claimed he was virtually the founder) would prove to be the centre of a teeming population. And so it has come to pass, and subsequent events have already verified his vision and his choice.

And yet, while a man of vision, he was not a visionary. He believed that the Christian faith was something more than a theory, something more than a doctrine for esoteric tenure; it was, he held, a force to be practically applied, a force which should energize in all the common relations of our social life, and which as such should help to solve all our social problems. Firm, staunch and strong in his own Christian faith, and foremost to defend it, he did not hold that faith apart from secular affairs, but rather sought to apply and introduce it there as the true and lawful sphere of its operation. He sought to give to the Christian faith its hands and its feet, to bring it down to earth, to make it walk and talk, not academically and metaphysically, but practically and plainly and in the idiom of the people; and time and again the people sought his counsel and advice, and sought it not in vain.

And this is one of the lessons, and not perhaps the least, which he has left and taught us—that religion is for life, for this life, and for the whole of this life. He certainly did not hold that most pernicious of all human heresies that Christian obligation is a variable moral term with a flexible moral imperative for the different human spheres of conduct and of action. He held, on the contrary, that Jesus Christ is the Lord of all human life, not only in the shelter and seclusion of the home, but in all the various ramifications of it, social and commercial, national and civic, or whatever other form and relation it assumed. That was what he stood for, and that was what persistently, in many ways and places, with his trenchant speech and pen, from first to last he taught—that Jesus Christ is the Lord and equally the Lord of all human life, and that not until His true and righteous claims were recognized and owned and practically obeyed would its evils be removed, its faults and vices cured, its bitter strifes and frictions terminate and cease. And to that end he saw it, slowly indeed, but surely and gradually, moving on. For his was an optimistic faith, which, while it did not overlook existing forms of evil nor underrate their strength, was not discouraged by them. He never struck or sounded a despondent note. He never ceased to be hopeful, and if at times the cause of righteousness and truth was hindered in its course and suffered some defeat, he did not for a moment doubt its ultimate result, but, with Browning, held that,

“ We fall to rise,
Are baffled to fight better,
Sleep to wake.”

And by this optimistic faith he helped and heartened others who saw and felt it in him and were encouraged by it. And down to the very end it cheered and strengthened him; and as by means of it he had met the foes of life which Jesus came to conquer, so did he meet and face, bravely, patiently and cheerfully, the last. It had been his purpose, as you are aware, to attend the Episcopal Conference which met last July at Lambeth Palace in London, and with that purpose in mind he had made many engagements to speak and preach in England, where he had often visited and where he was widely known and honored and admired. When it became evident that this proposed visit, not only to his own regret but to that of his many friends on the other side of the water, would have to be abandoned, it was still thought and hoped that the illness from which he suffered, although it was said to be serious, would yield in time to treatment, and that after a short sojourn in the quiet and seclusion of his summer home he would be ready to assume again his diocesan burden. To that end he made a brave and gallant fight, determined if he could, and if it was the will of God, to conquer and to win recovery of health. But it was not so to be. Gradually and slowly, and yet with intermitting hopes in those who watched beside him and in those who also at a distance watched, his waning strength declined, his hold on life relaxed, the silver cord was loosed, the twilight shadows fell, the darkness gathered about him, and peacefully at eveningtide he laid his burden down and fell asleep, to wake again to a more abundant life.

His burden, did I call it? No, not his, but the burden of his Master, which he for a time was privileged to share; the burden of Him who bore for its ultimate redemption the suffering, the sorrow, the sickness and the pain, the sin of all the world. And that is the burden which now devolves on us, and which it is for us who still for a little while remain, fortified and strengthened by the memories of the past and inspired by the Gospel hope and promise for the future, to take and carry on. That is now our burden; that is now our task. That is the task which confronts the Christian Church to-day, and yet for the performance of which the Christian Church is facing now as it has seldom done before its opportunity time. Its opportunity time for Christian effort beyond the borders of Christendom. For the world to-day is one; there are no isolations in it; its barriers do not bar nor its distances divide; and, as Mr. James Bryce has been reported as saying, "This event opens a new and unprecedented stage in world history whose significance has scarcely yet been realized either by the thinker or the man of action," and which is therefore giving to the Church to-day the hopeful opportunity for missionary effort beyond the borders of Christendom such as in all its history it has seldom had. And now is the Church's opportunity time, when, not grudgingly nor of necessity but willingly and gladly, it should try to meet its missionary apportionments, making large investments both of men and money, and then with faith and hope expecting large returns.

And not only for missionary propaganda beyond the borders of Christendom, but within the borders of Christendom, is the Church facing now its opportunity time. An eminent German scholar has said that in our modern world Christianity is an alien; but that in my judgment is too strong a term. It is not an alien, but neither is it a naturalized citizen. It is to be regarded rather as a guest, and as such the modern world has given greeting to it, has welcomed and received it as a highly honored guest, and has also extended a civic freedom to it, the freedom of the city and the freedom of the State. Still it has received it chiefly as a guest, which as a guest must not of course presume upon its hospitality privilege, to undertake to regulate or interfere with the world's real work. Or, changing the simile and using the more expressive one of a recent Bampton preacher, and also some of his words, "The cunning spirit of the world has taken the ferment which has worked such radical changes in the constitution of the human soul, and by inoculating society at large with a very diluted and attenuated serum has secured for itself a measure of immunity from inconvenient attacks." Happily, however, as the Bampton preacher continues, the immunity which it provides is not complete. It has never been complete. Time and again in the past great spiritual awakenings have come, "copies though it may be, faint and imperfect, of what happened in Galilee and Judea nineteen hundred years ago. Such," he says, "was the first coming of the Friars; such the Protestant Reformation with all its mistakes; the Methodist Revival in the Eighteenth Century, and the Tractarian Movement in the Nineteenth."

And such another awakening seems to be imminent now. For there is now a spirit working in the world which is not of the world. It is rather a spirit of world-disillusionment if not of world-fatigue, a spirit which in spite of the dominating materialism of the present age is learning more and more from a growing practical experience that God hath put Eternity in the heart of man and that he cannot live by means of bread alone. A spirit which is looking for a more vital form of life, both corporate and personal, and which in not finding it is apt to take upon itself a pessimistic tone. A spirit which is touching and moving the hearts of men and making them dissatisfied, not only with the world and what the world can give, but with that diluted and conventional Christianity which is current in the world.

And yet, while the world is trying now to reach and find a more vital form of life, is trying now to rise to a higher social plane, it is also showing, with its many voices crying in the wilderness and saying, Lo here and Lo there, with its many vague and futile remedial panaceas, conflicting and confusing, for social reformation, that it cannot reform itself, that it cannot raise itself, as has been so aptly said, by dead lift.

And now is the Church's opportunity time, as the time in which to do for the world what the world is trying to do but cannot do for itself. Now is the Church's opportunity time to meet the world's need, its felt and growing need, and, like Him whose name it bears, to minister unto the world, and to save it by serving it. Now is the Church's opportunity time, when it should not abate its energy and effort, but should more earnestly try to gather itself up; yes, and subordinating its differences, to gather itself together, and to put forth all its strength, its whole united strength in the service of mankind, and thus to make the Christian faith not an alien and not a guest and not a conventional form, but a naturalized citizen, strong and influential in the life of the modern world.

It is not an easy task. No, it is a hard one, requiring large and hard and sacrificial effort. But people to-day do not shrink from large and heavy tasks, they kindle towards them; they regard them not as obstacles to hinder and deter, but rather as occasions to quicken and inspire, with large possibilities of large achievement in them. That is at least the spirit of the present time and age, and so my brethren should it be with the Christian Church to-day. For the Christian Church is facing now its opportunity time to do a large and needed work in the life of the modern world.

And if that be true of the Church considered as a whole, is it not especially true of the Church in New York? For that is what New York means, that is what it spells—Opportunity; or that is the synonym for it, Opportunity. Not only for great and large secular achievement, but large religious achievement, and where the Church can do a work which all the world shall feel. For this is a world-centre, where world forces gather, which tend to make and mould the world and give its character to it. And it was because he saw it as such, whose voice to-day is silent, that he planned and worked for a building here to stand, which for all the people, citizen and stranger, resident and visitor, native born and foreign born, should be a House of God; and from which there should issue and emanate a power, to penetrate and permeate, to govern and control, those great world forces and world building forces which meet and gather here, and thus to make them forces which would tend more and more to build the world for God.

The work has been begun, and if it was well to begin it, then let us go on and push it towards completion. And not only this work, but all the work which the Church is doing here in this metropolitan city and this metropolitan diocese, and which for the most part it is doing well. But let us make it better, and in the name of Him who said, "I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me," let us yield and give our time, our strength, our substance, let us give ourselves more completely to it.

And in this connection I call your attention to a resolution adopted by the last General Convention, setting forth the first week in Advent as a time of special Prayer for the spread of Christ's Kingdom in the world. This action of the General Convention was taken in response to a request from the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, both in this country and in England, and has since been approved by many other Brotherhoods, lay organizations and missionary societies outside of our Communion; and I earnestly recommend the observance of this Week of Prayer to the Church in this Diocese. You, my brethren of the Clergy, will know better than I how to arrange and make provision for it in your respective congregations, what Services to have, at what hour to have them, and what character to give them. I venture to suggest, however, that you have them at an hour, perhaps in many cases an early hour of the day, when the men of your congregation will feel more free to attend, and to suggest further that you urge them to attend. But whatever the hour or whatever the character of them, I am sure you will agree with me that the devout observance of such a Week of Prayer would not only serve to quicken and deepen the spiritual life of the people committed to your care, but to extend throughout the world the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

I have but a further word to add. I know how great and large is the work which now devolves on me and have given it very much and very serious thought, and possibly at a later day I may ask for some assistance, either by a division of the Diocese or by the appointment of a Coadjutor; but I do not ask it now and do not desire it now. I think I can arrange the Episcopal Visitations and other Episcopal duties in a way that will be, I trust, not unacceptable to you and not too taxing to me. At all events, I should like for a time to try it; and after that I shall know, and you will know, whether the task is too heavy for me. What I need at present, or rather what I know I have, is your cordial co-operation, and having that, I here and now, upon this consecrated ground and before this holy Altar, renew the pledge which I made when first you called me to the work. I sought it not then in its more limited sphere; I seek it not now in its larger; but in the providence of God it has come to me. May He give me strength and grace and wisdom to perform it!

MEMORIAL

OF THE LATE

BISHOP OF NEW YORK.*

At a meeting of the Clergy of the Diocese in the Synod Hall on October 20th, 1908, following the burial of the Right Reverend Henry Codman Potter, D.D., LL.D., seventh Bishop of New York, in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, a committee was appointed by his successor, the Right Reverend David Hummel Greer, D.D., to prepare a minute in their behalf expressive of the honor and affectionate devotion with which they must ever regard his life and memory.

The day of his burial was also the twenty-fifth anniversary of his Consecration. It had been the hope of his Diocese to have commemorated an episcopate so distinguished in the history of the Church and Nation. But he who made these years illustrious, and who ruled over this Diocese with a spirit so strong and patient, a wisdom so far-sighted, and purpose so enduring, has passed beyond the tribute of our praise and honor into the presence of his Lord.

It would have been farthest from the wish of Bishop Potter to have had such commemoration one of personal adulation, and we shall now serve his memory best if we remember that insight and fine restraint with which he himself was wont to discuss the lives and deeds of other men.

Henry Codman Potter was born in the city of Schenectady, New York, on May 25, 1835. His father, Alonzo Potter, was then connected with Union College, but afterwards, in 1845, became

* Adopted by the Convention.

Bishop of Pennsylvania. His mother was the daughter of the Rev. Dr. Eliphalet Nott, President of Union College, a man famous among the great educators of America.

Bishop Potter's early education was received in Philadelphia. He at first contemplated a business career, but after a few years, his mind turned to the ministry of the Church, and he became a student in the Theological Seminary of Alexandria. Here began his life-long friendship with Phillips Brooks, his fellow student.

Graduated in 1857, he was ordained to the Diaconate, and on October 15th of the following year, to the priesthood.

In 1859 he became rector of St. John's Church, Troy, New York, where he remained for seven years till 1866, when he went to Boston, as assistant to Dr. Eastburn, rector of Trinity Church, and also Bishop of Massachusetts.

In May, 1868, he assumed the rectorship of Grace Church, New York. Declining the Presidency of Kenyon College, and in 1875, the Bishopric of Iowa, he continued his notable ministry in Grace Parish until 1883, when he was elected to be the Assistant Bishop of this Diocese, under the leadership of his distinguished uncle, Horatio Potter.

Consecrated on October 20, 1883, at Grace Church, in the presence of some forty-three bishops and over three hundred of the clergy, he entered upon his duties, and four years later, on the death of the venerable Diocesan, he became charged with the sole responsibilities of this great Diocese.

Bishop Potter had been honored from the early years of his ministry by degrees from Trinity and Union Colleges, and in later years received the degree of LL.D., from Cambridge University, England. His preparation for the Episcopate had been greatly furthered by his experience as Secretary of the House of Bishops from 1866 to the year of his own advancement to membership in that Body.

In 1872, Bishop Horatio Potter brought about the founding of the chartered corporation of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. When, in 1887, his successor became the Diocesan, he adopted vigorous measures for the prosecution of the work. The purchase of the property of the Leake and Watts Orphan Asylum followed, and finally, on St. John Evangelist's Day, December 27, 1891, the corner stone was laid. The building of the Cathedral engaged his utmost devotion. Its very size, its commanding position, were to him symbols of the greatness and authority of its message to an age that rears its merchant palaces and knows no limit to the lavish splendor of its secular life.

I. HIS CHARACTER AS A MAN.

When, therefore, twenty-five years ago he was called to the Episcopate, it seemed in an unusual sense like coming into his natural inheritance. For he had received from his father many of those excellent gifts of mind and heart which had lent such distinction to his own Episcopate. The spirit of the father was not long absent from the thought and memory of the son. It gave at once a standard of stewardship, and set the large boundaries of his own responsibilities. Beginning life as a business man, he seemed from the first to realize the significance of the daily relationships of secular life, relations which lie outside the purely ecclesiastical and professional. He spoke a language common to the world. He felt the reality and play of those forces which are continually moulding society, and vitally influence the affairs of our time.

It was this natural sympathy with life in all its phases that gave him a certain quickness of insight and judgment. Human life appealed to him with irresistible force. Its problems and questions were of supreme concern. His interest was as far as possible from any thought of condescension or patronage. He did not force himself to show this interest. It was not the question of a duty to which he bowed himself, but rather the vital movement of his own nature. He was a man of the world in the best sense, and therefore touched the world with an ease and freedom, a sense of mastery and knowledge, a bright and eager interest in all its life, that made him above all else the citizen.

In any broad estimate of his character we must start with this conception of him as the citizen. He was the citizen before he became the ecclesiastic. This furnished the ground work of his career, upon which all else was builded. He was the Citizen-Bishop.

In this connection it is interesting to recall his work as Rector of Grace Church. Before the so-called institutional Church had come into existence, we find him opening Grace House with its Day Nursery for little children, and its library and reading rooms for those who in the loneliness of a great city, found there a welcome to kindly fellowship. And no one more than he rejoiced in that enlargement of Christian Service which created Toynbee Hall and Hull House, and the innumerable Settlement and Parish Houses, which characterize the religious and social work of to-day.

One needs but to read his "Sermons of the City," and such volumes as "The Citizen in His Relation to the Industrial Situation," and "The Scholar and the State," to appreciate the force of his own words, spoken thirty years ago, that "a living Church must needs have something to say upon the social problems that challenge attention, and that unless at least their gravity and importance are candidly recognized, it cannot expect to retain its hold upon thoughtful people."

Yet let it be remembered that Bishop Potter did not deal with these social problems in order to save the Church.

He knew very well that human society existed before the Church, that human life throws forever up to the surface, questions and difficulties, that, as life goes on, these are likely to become more and more complex, and that this very human life itself is the sphere where God and man meet. He knew nothing of a Church walled off from this life. He knew nothing of this life walled off from God. He knew that if we are to find God anywhere it must be in this life, and if we are to find this life anywhere, it must be in God.

He believed this implicitly, and his heart rushed as by an instinctive and irresistible impulse to meet this challenge. Yet there was a wholesome reserve and balance in his judgment. Laboring men came to him with their problems, because they knew that in this ecclesiastic was a man who would not hesitate to speak his honest word, whether of criticism or approval. He was singularly frank and fearless in opinion. But this fearlessness came not from indifference to others' opinions, but from his faith in the ultimate victory of justice and truth, and this victory could only come with absolute freedom of the individual. "We are not working," said he, "for an hour or a day; we are not striving for the advance of a race which was born yesterday and will perish to-morrow. Our faith in social progress is at once part and prophecy of a grander future. Over all that we do to make life cleaner and wiser and healthier, moves the plan of Him whose will it is to make His children immortal. And our social science will be a spell of power and blessing among men, just in so far as it is transfused by His spirit and ennobled by His love." *

II. HIS CONCEPTION OF THE EPISCOPATE.

When Dr. Potter was advanced to the Episcopate he brought to that office a service that grew out of his character as a man. However we may exalt that office, however sacred it be held, it can never be in any case larger than the man who occupies it.

It is he who determines its scope and quality. He may make it narrow and partisan, full of a limited ecclesiasticism and petty personality, without vision, without breadth and power. The great historic order means in such case little beyond a matter of dress and title and certain ritual observances. Bishop Potter brought to his episcopate a large world-sense. We may believe that he was vividly conscious of the powers of that Order thus placed in his hands, that he deliberately and with set purpose, sought to realize this added power of leadership. To him the Episcopate represented not a mere succession of men bearing venerable and splendid titles, but a succession of men to whom a Mission had been committed. And with that Mission came the Divine Grace, not to make small things large, nor to give a mock sanctity to dress and place, but to reveal to those who reverently received it, the fulness of opportunity for service and the richer interpretation of life.

He himself was richly endowed with qualities for service. "He had insight, forecast, tact, knowledge of men, genial touch of men, sympathy with his period, with American methods and ideals. He was keen to catch the human appeal from all sorts and conditions of men. He had that audacity of faith, courage, and faculty for organization, that give leadership. In all his word and deed he showed his profound sense of the divine mission of the Church in a world that is perpetually confronting it with new issues and supplying it with new implements. Simply and strongly he carried his manhood into his office. He was better than faultless: he was human; every inch a bishop, with an old time courtliness, noblesse oblige and spiritual fatherhood; every inch a man, with the loyalties and loves of an honest, deep-hearted man." †

* "The Scholar and the State," p. 193.

† Dr. W. W. Battershall—"An Appreciation."

But we must let him describe for us his conception of the Episcopate, in the sermon preached at the Consecration of his friend, the late Phillips Brooks, to the Episcopate of Massachusetts.

"We are here," said he, "in God's sanctuary, to give him our commission. Henceforth he is to be a bishop in the Church of God, to whom no one of all God's children is to be alien or remote. 'Reverend Father in God' we shall presently say as best describing that relation. Could there be a designation more affecting or more inspiring? How many aching hearts there are to-day, adrift on the sea of outworn human systems, . . . lonely, forgotten of their fellow-men, who are waiting for one in whose great soul a divine Fatherhood of love and compassion lives anew, to recall and arouse and ennoble them! We speak of the limitation of the Episcopate in these modern days, and it has its limitations. I am not sure that on the whole they are not wise ones. We in America have shorn the office of much of its state and ceremony and secular authority, and in doing so I am persuaded that we have done well. The true power of the Episcopate must forever be in the exercise of those spiritual gifts and graces of which it is the rightful, as it was meant to be the lowly, inheritor. But for the exercise of these, there are, verily, no limitations. No human interest, no social problem, no personal sorrow or want can be alien to the true bishop. Whether other men see with his eyes or not, he must forever try to see with their eyes. Whether his clergy and his people understand and love him, he must always be trying to understand and love them. It is easy for a bishop to concern himself exclusively with the mint and anise and cumin of rite and rubric and canon, and when he does not do this, there will be those who will be swift to tell him not to go beyond his appointed round, nor to waste his strength in other than the task-work of his office. But if he refuses to be fettered by any such narrow construction of his consecration vows as that, then, as he hearkens to these affecting words with which presently this our brother will be addressed, 'Be to the Flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the out-cast, seek the lost,'—how wide and how effectual is the door which they hold open!"

An Episcopate thus filled and thus bounded knows indeed no limit in its response to the world. It takes on such large roominess of sympathy and thought, that interests the most diverse gravitate to it by a natural law. The Diocese of New York has meant more during the last twenty-five years than that of one section, though that territory hold the chief city of the land. The drift of the world will forever be towards the man who best understands and loves it, and towards such a Church. This is the law that determines the supremacy of Jesus Christ, and fixes His authority beyond cavil.

We may well rejoice that recent years have witnessed the growth of the Church through this larger vision. This was the spirit that guarded in this Diocese the freedom of men to think and worship within those ample lines which embrace all the various types of thought and worship. "There was never any doubt as to Bishop Potter's personal convictions on many burning questions, where both the timorous and the fanatically-minded would have urged him on to what they were pleased to call positive action." But he guarded the freedom of truth as jealously as he did the authority of truth. "Whether in matters social or religious or political, he believed in the full exercise of liberty, both as a method for securing the greatest possible good, and for repressing the greatest possible evil." And there will not be forgotten by this generation certain hours of profoundest peril, when his voice sounded the one supreme challenge that arrested the nation and the city, and with an overwhelming authority cleared the field for action and reform.

With all this deeper relationship to the Church and world there went the singular charm of a sympathy that made him part of the social fellowships of a great city. It was the same wholesomeness of thought and feeling that made him equally responsive to the rich man and the poor, at home, alike, in the Century or the Players Club or in the Settlement House, and gave him power to speak with equal felicity before the Academy of Science, or in dedication of Carnegie Hall, before Universities or Chambers of Commerce. Everywhere men felt the play of that lambent wit and fancy, that inimitable art of the story-teller, and yet never failed to catch the deeper strain that dominated the movement of his mind.

Never was he long forgetful of that divine world that lies about man's life. As he said at the Dedication of the Carnegie Music Hall: "Outside this realm of sight and sense there is another realm skirting it so close, and yet in busy, sordid moments, seeming removed how far! It is the realm in which great deeds that seem in our more hopeless hours so unattainable take on another hue. It is the realm of aspiration, of faith, of hope. . . . As in many an ancient minster and many a lowly sanctuary, music, finding its highest office on the service of religion, has lifted the soul toward God, so here . . . may men be trained to highest thoughts and noblest longings, and so to worthiest service for their fellow-men."

III. THE CATHEDRAL.

Out of an Episcopate so conceived, it was inevitable that the Cathedral should take shape. Others have spoken, and will speak, for the Cathedral before whose Altar he lies buried. But we may at least recall here the one thing for which his Cathedral stood—the Fatherhood of God—the Brotherhood of Man, gathered by the power of the living Spirit within the embracing love of Jesus Christ. Speaking for such a Cathedral Church, he said: "If this is un-American, then they who founded the Republic were un-American also. In a word, the past of Christendom has given to the future of America a great and noble instrument. Let not ours be the doubtful wisdom of those who are afraid to use it!"*

IV. PERSONAL TRAITS.

It were impossible to bring this minute to a close without recalling those traits of character and mind which lent to the past twenty-five years something which none who knew him can ever forget. Great men are commonly simple-hearted and direct; great believers in God are commonly simple in their faith. Who of this Diocese will not recall the grace and playful spirit of this man?

He was a man about whom stories grow, and charming incidents attended him as naturally as flowers gather about meadow-paths, and they linger in our memory to-day—stories that fill our hearts with mirth and brightness whenever we recall his presence, and other stories which tell of tenderness and sympathy, his power to enter into and understand the weariness of toil, the shadow of sorrow, and the misery of doubt and darkness.

One of the truest tributes to his character has pictured him as the Bishop in the Village, entering into the homes of his neighbours, responding to their friendliness with prompt and eager interest, and coming closest to them in hours of sorrow, and rejoicing to bow together with them in their worship.

* "The Significance of the American Cathedral." "The Scholar and the State," p. 335.

Bishop Potter has indeed left us the memory of a great Episcopate, one which deeply impressed the imagination and life of the Church and Nation. He was sharply criticized, as what man is not, whose life moves deep enough to cut across the lives of other men, and make itself a force in a growing world. He was not faultless because his nature was compacted of great powers of will and purpose and conviction. He was sometimes misunderstood and became the target of dispraise and blame. But these things did not move him from following the Vision as his eyes saw it. In the light of death things fall often into their true perspective and proportion, and we of to-day, though standing so close to his career, do not wholly misunderstand him. It is much to any Diocese to have had a leader who so thoroughly knew his age, and who above all believed that the greatest thing his clergy can do is also to know their age, and serve it in the Spirit of Jesus Christ. Prayer was to him the deepest reality of his life. No one who ever heard him, as he so often did, offer prayer without book or page, will ever forget the perfect form, and the searching, simple words that fell from his lips. As he said of another great Bishop, so of him we may say, that "up out of the narrower round in which he faithfully walked, from time to time he climbed, and came back bathed in a heavenly light."

Those of his clergy who were privileged to attend his Retreats for ordination, will recall the depth and beauty of his words, the profoundly tender and inspiring thought with which the hours were filled.

And now, still remembering his presence, we may be thankful, not alone for his great life, but that it was given him to consecrate so much of it as a bishop in the Church of God.

In the sermon which he preached fifteen years ago in memory of his friend Phillips Brooks, he closed with words which may fittingly conclude this tribute to the memory of his own life.

"Unto the Almighty and ever-living God we yield most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all His saints who have been the chosen Vessels of His grace and the lights of the world in their several generations; but here and to-day, especially for His servant, Henry Codman Potter, sometime of this commonwealth and this Diocese, true prophet, true priest, true bishop, to the glory of God the Father!"

Several memorials have been given, particularly worthy of mention being a beautiful painting placed in the reredos and a heavy carved wood communion rail. This completes the refurnishing of the sanctuary, done within the last three years. Local conditions in our end of the city are such that for the parish to "hold its own," as it has done, is to be considered satisfactory.

Since May 1, 1907, Bainbridge Avenue, on the east side of the church property, has been opened, curbed, graded, flagged and provided with gas lamps.

Two thousand five hundred dollars, not included in this report, was collected outside the parish for the rectory fund. With this a flight of granite steps has been built, leading up to the church grounds, and also the foundations of the rectory. The work has come to a stop, owing to lack of funds for its completion. It will require $7,000 more to finish the rectory.

The unusual amount of Receipts and Expenditures given in this report is due largely to the fact that this has been the two hundredth anniversary of St. Andrew's Parish. Extensive improvements have been made in the Church, Parish House and Rectory, a new organ installed and paid for and considerable additions made to the church structure. The expenses of the Bicentenary Celebration, the cost of memorials, etc., are items included in the unusual totals given.

Families and parts of families and number of baptized persons are estimated. Present number of communicants is as nearly as possible actual count of separate individuals who have received communion during the year. Current expenses, including all salaries, fuel, etc., cover a very large charge for the Parish House expenses, which are practically a mission work of this church in the neighborhood in which it is situated.

Repairs and improvements consist of a pulpit and window put in as centenary offerings. Other objects within the parish includes the large expenses of the centenary celebration of the parish. Of the Sunday-school offerings, $500 were for a centenary window.

On Monday, May 4, 1908, there was held in St. Peter's Church one of the most important Vestry meetings since its organization over two hundred years ago. The action of this meeting marks an epoch in the Church's history that means much to the members of the Church and the community at large.

By a unanimous standing vote of the Vestry (all eleven members being present), a resolution was adopted declaring every pew (with the exception of about sixteen, which are leased in perpetuity), free forever to all who come to the services.

During the past year this parish has assumed entire support of the Church despite the fact that several of our best supporters, financially and spiritually, have removed, and as yet we have been able to fill their places in only a few instances.

The Parish House grounds have been graded and seeded, and this has increased the sightliness as well as value of the site. A large boys' club is entirely successful. Improvements of value have been added to both Parish House and Church.

In June, 1907, the Parish reached its fiftieth anniversary. An effort, receiving the support of our late Diocesan, was made to relieve the Parish of its mortgages and interest-bearing notes. The financial panic coming at the time, the effort was not the success hoped for. On Thanksgiving Day a special service was held at 10.30 A.M., Bishop Potter being the preacher. The Bishop in the course of his address referred to the various vicissitudes the Parish had passed through, but expressed his confidence in its future success "under the guidance of his young friend and brother, its energetic rector." The sum of $1,000 was raised and applied on the mortgage.

During the present incumbency the Parish has paid off all its interest-bearing notes, $1,000 upon its mortgage and has made many repairs upon its handsome property, which for years had been deplorably neglected.

For the guidance of the Assessment Committee, it is fair to say that fully half of the donations were raised outside the Parish.

* The parochial reports this year cover the period from May 1, 1907, to Nov. 1, 1908. As a result, some of the items in this table taken from the parochial reports, viz.: Baptisms, Marriages, Burials and Expenditures, are abnormally large, and represent the result of the work for eighteen months. While the Confirmations, Communicants and Sunday-school Statistics are either those of the year, or are little, if at all, affected by the longer period.

† This abnormal number of burials is due mainly to the fact that the City Mission Society has taken charge of the burials in the Potter's Field, and said the words of faith and hope over five thousand who have been laid to rest there during the past year.

THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

As Adopted October 11, 1796 ; and Amended October 17, 1827 ; October 2, 1884 ; October 4, 1889 ; September 29, 1848 ; September 26, 1850 ; September 28, 1860 ; September 28, 1882 ; September 26, 1889 ; September 14, 1902 ; September 28, 1905 ; November 15, 1906 ; November 14, 1907 ; November 12, 1908.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year. It shall be held at the Cathedral on the second Wednesday in November, unless the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, or, in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, unless the Standing Committee shall appoint another place or time.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall consist of the Bishop and the Bishop-Coadjutor (if there be one) of the Diocese and of Clerical and Lay Members.

The Clerical Members shall be those Clergymen canonically resident within the Diocese not less than six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, who shall be either

Archdeacons of the Diocese, or settled in some Church in union with the Convention, or in the Cathedral, or employed as Missionaries under the direction of the Convention, or engaged within the Diocese as Professors or Instructors in any incorporated institution of learning, or as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated charitable institution, or Clergymen who, having attained the age of sixty-five years, shall have retired from the active work of the Ministry after holding for not less than ten years one or more of the positions hereinbefore named.

The Lay Members shall be male Delegates from the several Churches in union with the Convention, not exceeding three from each Church, chosen by the Vestry or Congregation.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with such services as shall be approved by the Bishop, or in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall be entitled to one vote, the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor having the right to vote with the clergy. When votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859; the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Members voting shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

ARTICLE VIII.

Wherever in the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the standing Committee, in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

ARTICLE IX.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged ; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only ; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "Of the Filling of Vacant Cures," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate ; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least fifty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least forty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. The calling of the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present, provided that evidence satisfactory to the Convention of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall take means to secure a correct list of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates who are present at the Convention.

SEC. 16. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 17. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 18. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application ; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary ; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5.—Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed ; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law ; the name of each person buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church ; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of Communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. The Register contemplated by this Canon shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Bishop or by such person as he may appoint.

SEC. 6. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon * thereof to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election: provided that if in any election a greater number of persons than the number of offices to be filled shall receive a canonical majority of the votes cast, those who up to the number of offices to be filled receive the largest canonical majorities in both orders shall be declared elected.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, Deputies to the Federate Council, and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, shall be as follows :

Any member of the Convention may place in the hands of the Secretary, in writing, on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, for members of the Federate Council and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the first day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council ; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at the regular annual meeting next preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop, also, from time to time shall designate one of the Provisional Deputies to supply, either temporarily or permanently, any vacancy caused by the death, absence or inability of any Deputy. During such period as shall be stated in the certificate issued to him by the Bishop, the Provisional Deputy so designated shall possess, and shall be entitled to exercise, the power and authority of the Deputy in place of whom he shall have been designated.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

At every stated Convention there shall be an election by ballot of eight Clergymen and eight Laymen to serve as Deputies at any meeting of the Federate Council that may be held before the next Annual Convention of the Diocese. And in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention a Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, to consist of four Clergymen and four Laymen. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical members and Lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purposes shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

SEC. 5. Whenever application shall be made to the Standing Committee for their consent to an application to a Court for leave to sell or mortgage real property, which at the time of such application is used by a congregation for regular religious services, the Standing Committee shall not give their consent until it shall have been made to appear to their satisfaction that notice of the application has been given to the congregation.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes, and Clergymen without Cure.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

SEC. 4. Any Clergyman without cure resident in, or visiting, this Diocese and desiring to take temporary or occasional service therein shall signify to the Bishop his wish to officiate in this Diocese. A list of such Clergymen as shall be licensed by the Bishop for such duty shall be kept at the Diocesan House. And no Rector or Parish shall employ the services of any Clergyman without cure for more than one day, unless he shall have the written license of the Bishop.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes and mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes; provided that not less than twenty days' previous notice of a time and place when the Standing Committee will hear any persons interested in the matter shall in each case be given to the incumbents of such parishes or mission districts as in the opinion of the Standing Committee may be affected by the proposed action. The Bishop's certificates of the determination or alteration of the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish or of a mission district forming part of a parish, to the Rector of the parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or, in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in its Book of Minutes; or, in the case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. Wherever a chapel or a mission is maintained by a parish, if it be included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, no separate district shall be assigned to it; but if it be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, a separate district shall be assigned to it, which shall form part of the parish.

SEC. 3. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 4. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded, in the case of a parish, including a mission district forming part of a parish, shall constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof; in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society; and in the case of any other mission district shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission district is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission district; provided that nothing in this

Canon shall be taken to prevent such Rector, Superintendent or Archdeacon from conferring upon the Minister in charge of any mission district such authority in respect thereto as he may think fit.

SEC. 5. In any town or borough in which a parish or a mission district shall have been constituted, a new place of worship (unless upon the site of a former one) shall not be established, nor shall a new congregation be gathered, nor shall a congregation remove from one site or place of worship to another site or place of worship, unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license therefor; provided that the Standing Committee shall communicate a copy of the Bishop's proposed license, by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district within which it is intended to establish such new place of worship or to which such congregation proposes to remove, and to the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, and to the applicant for such license, with not less than twenty-days' notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any person interested in the matter.

SEC. 6. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which it is proposed to prosecute such work, may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year unless with the license of the Bishop, nor shall any building for such work be erected unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license for the establishment of a new place of public worship, or shall have constituted a new mission district or a new parish, for the continuance of such work.

SEC. 7. Nothing contained in this Canon shall be taken to restrict the power of the Bishop to license private chapels or chapels connected with institutions, nor to affect such chapels so licensed.

CANON XV.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the Day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of its current expenses as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

SEC. 3. A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted annually to every Church in the Diocese by the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the Seamen's Church Institute of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary Work of the Diocese shall be conducted by a Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions, sitting as such as often as the business of the Board may demand.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively :

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.

2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.

3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland.

4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan.

5. The Archdeaconry of Duchess, comprising the County of Duchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish and Mission Station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct, provided that such Lay Delegates from Mission Stations shall not have the right to vote upon any question involving the appropriation or apportionment of moneys. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries; [3] to have full management of its funds; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Archdeaconry, and appointed by the Bishop, and shall continue in office until his successor shall have been appointed. The nomination shall be made as soon as practicable after the occurrence of a vacancy in the office or the rejection of any previous nomination by the Bishop. It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Secretary and Treasurer, and make before the Annual Meeting of the Board of Diocesan Missions a full report of its year's work to the Board of Managers hereinafter described.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Diocesan Board of Managers, which Board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, Secretaries and Treasurers, and also five Clergymen and five Laymen, elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) It shall be the duty of this Board of Managers [1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by each Archdeaconry; [2] to devise general plans for making Mission Work more effective, and developing a greater Missionary interest throughout the Diocese; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report containing the following items :

- a.* Statement of Missionary Work done since last report.
- b.* The names of the Missionaries and Stations.
- c.* An account of Annual Receipts and Expenditures, comprising all amounts received and disbursed by each Archdeaconry.
- d.* A list of the Parishes contributing, and of the sums contributed by each Parish to Diocesan Missions.
- e.* An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and a schedule of assessments upon the several Parishes.

(III.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, at a regularly called meeting, two of whom shall be Archdeacons, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop, one of the Archdeacons present shall be elected by the meeting to preside.

CANON XIX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds :

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention. or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to,

*“(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

“ . . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

“ With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

“ 1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

“ 2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry ; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

“ 3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

“ 4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given ceteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty.”

the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said funds, be divided equally between them. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time ; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced ; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board ; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel ; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning the Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation by Reason of Disability of a Minister.

Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bishop, on competent medical testimony, that by reason of incurable mental or physical disability a clergyman has become incapable of discharging the duties of his cure, it shall be competent for the Bishop, on the application of the Vestry or Trustees of the Church, and upon reasonable notice to all the parties concerned, to dissolve the pastoral relation between such clergyman and his church.

CANON XXII.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXIII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

- (1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.
- (2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York.
- (3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.
- (4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.
- (5) Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York.
- (6) Report of St. Stephen's College.
- (7) Report of Sunday-school Commission.
- (8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.
- (9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

The election of Trustees of any of the foregoing Boards shall be in order in connection with the reception of their reports.

8. Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

9. Miscellaneous business.

VI. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in their order.
5. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
6. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to him.
7. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
8. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
9. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
10. Report of the Committee on Canons.
11. Reports of Special Committees.
12. Miscellaneous business.

VII. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in their order.
5. Miscellaneous business.

VIII. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not be finished, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or finished, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

IX. The address of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor shall be in order at any time.

X. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

XI. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

XII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 P.M. to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 8 to 10 P.M.

XIII. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows:

The Clergy and the Lay Delegates of the Parishes entitled to vote shall present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant; and if such second vote shall not result in an election, further votes shall be taken until all the offices are filled or until the Convention shall otherwise order.

XIV. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and all motions, when required by the Chair, shall be reduced to writing.

XV. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as herein provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it—or to substitute another for it; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a motion to amend, or to substitute, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XVI. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XVII. Every resolution offered shall be considered at once unless reference be requested. Reference may be requested by five members of every resolution, except such as may accompany the report of a committee. Such resolution shall be referred without debate by the President to the appropriate committee, or, if in the opinion of the President there be no such committee, then to a special committee, of such number as the President shall designate.

XVIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIX. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XX. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XXI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XXII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XXIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XXIV. Votes shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XXV. In taking a vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXVI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXVII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXVIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIX. When a member is called to order by the Chair, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the Chair; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXX. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXXI. The majority of a quorum shall always be requisite to an election.

XXXII. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.
